UNGERN DEFEAT DENIED; MOVING ON, FRIENDS SAY

Baron Pressing Toward Verkhne-Udinsk, Harbin Reports

RAILROAD LINES CUT

Transbaikalia Government Planning Numerous Reforms

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, June 22.—It is reported from Transbaikalia that the Government is holding a series of meetings, at which several important reforms are being discussed. It is understood that the Government is contemplating inviting members of the Moderate Right and Right Socialist parties to participate in its work.

Travellers from Chita state that M. Krasnochekoff has left for Omsk on the receipt of an urgent telegram, and that he will perhaps proceed to Moscow.

Local military authorities and the Right press emphatically deny the report of Baron Ungern's defeat in Transbaikalia. On the contrary, they declare, Baron Ungern's detachments are continuing to advance in the direction of Verkhne-Udinsk without meeting serious opposition.

Reports from Manchuria Station state that the line between Borzia and Dauria Stations is threatened by attack on the part of Baron Ungern's bands operating in that region. No attacks have yet been made, however. The partisans have made several night attempts to blow up bridges or destroy the line, but without success, the reports add.

SEMENOFF AGAIN

Vladivostok, June 27.—Ataman Semenoff is reported to have left for Grodekovo. Alarm is manifested in Nikolsk Ussurissk and Spassk over the preparations of his followers to seize the reins of power.

The session of the Non-Socialist conference has concluded without any tangible result.

A conference of the trade unions has resolved by an overwhelming majority not to participate in the elections to the Popular Assembly. The conference was then declared dissolved at the demand of the Government.

According to district militia reports, numerous bands of Hunghutze are approaching Vladivostok.

The Japanese military mission to Habarovsk has returned to Vladivostok. Major Mike was not allowed to proceed to Chita.

M. Antonoff's Government has resumed office in Iman.

(Dalta News Agency)

Harbin, June 22.—Threatened by Merkuloff's special delegates with reprisals in case of refusal to participate in the non-socialist conference, the rural population of Cossack and other villages have sent their representatives to Vladivostok. On arriving there they held a private conference and decided: (1) that all power in Maritime Province must belong to the People's Assembly elected by the whole population; (2) that in order to guarantee free elections the freedom and inviolability of person, press, meeting, and conscience must be granted; and (3) that the People's Assembly elects among its members a legal government for the province.

BLAMED FOR WAR

The conference adopted also resolutions protesting against Merkuloff's and Semenoff's men for instigating a new civil war. It finally decided not to participate in the non-socialist conference as it is not a representative body of the people but called by war chiefs and representatives of organisations in foreign territory with a very limited membership, who for the past few years had no concern for the welfare of Russian people and were in fact fighting against them.

Harbin, June 22.—The election law for the Maritime People's Assembly will be published in a few days by the Merkuloff government. It will aim at depriving the working people and socialists and, particularly, the Communists of the franchise right. It is understood that candidates must state that they do not belong to any of the socialist groups. If after being elected a person should prove to uphold the principles of any of these groups, he would be immediately excluded from the assembly. A fine of from one to fifty roubles will be made in case of failure to vote.

Harbin, June 22.—Negotiations between Merkuloff and Semenoff are

Ouija Evidently Told Lie, Now Owner Faces $10,000 Suit

OUIJA, fireside companion in thousands of homes and confidential adviser to hundreds of families, has been dragged in court in a $10,000 suit for slander in the Will County Court at Joliet, Ill. A year ago the family of Mrs. Clara Yost, of Lockport, Ill., went away from home for a brief visit. On their return they found a quantity of sugar and raisins missing. Mrs. Yost began an investigation and consulted the ouija board. Ouija, it is alleged, stated that Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walters, neighbors and old friends of the Yost family, had taken the missing articles. The story circulated about Lockport and Mr. and Mrs. Walters demanded that Mrs. Yost make a retraction in the local paper. This she refused to do and the $10,000 slander suit is the result.

PROSPECT FOR ENDING COAL STRIKE BETTER

Lloyd George Invites Owners And Miners To Conference

(Reuter's Service)

London, June 25.—Mr. Lloyd George has invited the coalowners and miners to a joint conference at the Board of Trade on Monday, with the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Robert Horne, in the chair.

The Miners' Executive today consulted the representatives of the Trade Union Congress and the Labor Party and afterwards accepted the Prime Minister's invitation to a conference with the coal-owners on Monday.

It is assumed that the efforts of the Labor leaders will be directed towards reaching a satisfactory settlement, and as the Miners' Executive are prepared to relinquish the demand for a national pool, the prospect of an early resumption is brighter. It is even hoped that the miners will return to work by July 4. The Miners' Executive still hope to secure the Government grant of £10,000,000.

Sze Bitter Against Renewal Of Pact

(Reuter's Service)

London, June 27.—According to a New York telegram, the Chinese Minister, Mr. Alfred Sze, in a speech delivered at the annual banquet of the New York State Bankers' Association, bitterly attacked the Anglo-Japanese Alliance. He declared that though this agreement vitally affected China, China had not even been consulted in its making. Unless both China and the United States became parties to the treaty, he said, he could not see how peace in the Far East could be made enduring.

MASS MEETING IN PROTESTS TO ANGLO-JAP PACT

Find Vacant Lot When Recreation Ground Is Barred

WOMAN IS SPEAKER

Advocates British-Japanese Boycott If Alliance Is Renewed

Refused admission to the Chinese public recreation grounds near West Gate, some 600 Chinese representing 31 different organisations, paraded through the streets of the Nantao City Sunday afternoon and, finally locating a patch of vacant ground near the City Procurator's Court, held a mass meeting of protest to the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

Speeches advocating the boycotting of British and Japanese goods in the event of renewal of the agreement and denouncing the present Peking government were made—one of the speakers being a woman—and it was decided to draft telegrams of protest to be sent to the British and American governments and to various organisations throughout China.

When the crowd gathered early in the afternoon it found the gates of the recreation ground closed and an extra guard of police and soldiers on duty. Six delegates were then appointed to interview the Defense Commissioner and try to obtain permission for the meeting to be held. This was refused and the crowd then formed a procession and started off in the direction of St. Catherine's Bridge. A huge banner bearing the words "Citizens Mass Meeting" was carried ahead of the parade and smaller flags with inscriptions such as "Oppose the Anglo-Japanese Alliance Renewal," "Oppose Japanese Loans," "Upset the Unconstitutional Government," "Oppose all Foreign Loans," "Unite for Salvation," "Demand Better Education," were borne by the marchers.

At the bridge the procession found its way barred by troops and turned toward the Hangchow railway line, where a piece of vacant land was found. Benches were brought forth for the speakers to stand on and Mr. Li Da-nien, of the National Organisations society, opened the meeting with a denunciation of the authorities for preventing the original program. Mass meetings, he declared, were the only medium of expression available to the people. He referred to the Alliance and proposed that telegrams be sent to the British and American governments and to the Chinese Ministers to those countries.

The principal speech was made by Miss Yu Pai-kao, who was formerly a teacher in a school in the Straits Settlements. She supported the proposal for the sending of telegrams and suggested that in the event that no satisfactory reply were forthcoming a boycott of British goods be started and the present boycott of Japanese goods be tightened. When the original Anglo-Japanese Alliance came into effect, she declared, it gave Japan the chance to seize Korea. A renewal of the pact would mean that Japan would be free to carry out a similar program with regard to China.

Tshoe Tung-yah, president of the Society for the Promotion of Punctuality placed the blame for the present trouble between North and South upon Japan and said that if left to herself China would find that there were no differences to fight over. Li Hung-ling, of the Electricity Workers' Union, also advocated a boycott unless the Alliance is abandoned and a Fokienese student urged the people to unite and work together for their national rights, declaring that concerted action could bring about the overthrow of the present government within a few weeks.

In closing the meeting Yu Yo-chi, acting chairman of the National Chinese Students' Union, who presided, stated that a conference would be held at the Union headquarters for the purpose of drafting the proposed telegrams. This meeting was later held on the messages written. The following telegram was also sent out to various organisations and newspapers throughout the country:

"We held a mass meeting today and a large number of persons were present. They decided to protest against the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance and not to recognise the Peking government. Please follow our steps.
The Shanghai Citizens' Meeting."

Cards, His 'Wife' And 'The Madonna' Are All Jackie Cares To Talk About

JACKIE Coogan, five-year-old screen wizard, is in New York and is viewing the big town with a critical eye. The little fellow has drawn a salary exceeding $64,000 since he was four years old. Jackie has dark brown eyes, whose innocent depths glitter with the light of inordinate talent. Jackie's proclivities lean toward cards and Robert Service's poems.

He recently recited Service's "The Madonna" for the benefit of a wondering audience. The expression that attended its recitation seemed strange, coming from this speck of manhood—strange, in view of the poem he recited. Jackie is every bit a regular boy. He is democratic to the nth degree, regarding Chaplin and Douglas Fairbanks as just pals, the same as "Patsy" Marks, his five-year-old "wife" back in his Hollywood home. The prodigy will spend a month in New York with his father before returning to Los Angeles. He expects to amuse himself during his stay by playing golf in the hotel corridor.

G.O.P. PAPERS IN U.S. OBJECT TO SIMS REBUKE

New York Tribune Calls Reprimand A "Hyphenate Victory"

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, June 26.—Rear-Admiral Sims has returned to Newport to resume his position as head of the Naval War College. It is intimated in naval and Senate circles that the incident is now closed.

The leading Republican organs vigorously object to the official rebuke of Admiral Sims. The "Tribune" speaks of a "hyphenate victory" and says the Admiral has been humiliated "for telling unchallengeable truths."

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Washington, June 25.—Interviewed on leaving the White House after a visit to President Harding, Admiral Sims said in reference to the reprimand administered by Secretary Denby in connection with his recent criticism of Sinn Fein activities in the United States, "I got what I deserved, the same old thing," and, adding that he had not known that his speech in London was "loaded," expressed regret at the inconvenience which he had caused the Administration.

Ten Thousand Parade In Canton After Victory

YUNGHSIEN FALLS

Defeated Militarist To Move To Shiuhing, Report

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hongkong, June 27.—Information has reached here that Wuchow was captured by the Cantonese forces on Saturday and that General Chen Chiung-ming is preparing to move his headquarters thither from Shiuhing.

It is reported that the Cantonese have also captured Yunghsien and taken two battalions prisoner. Ten thousand people paraded in Canton yesterday in a demonstration in favor of the campaign against Kwangsi.

Peking, June 27.—It is officially reported from Wuchow that seventeen British women and children have left that city for Canton. The Cantonese troops are expected to enter Wuchow today; no looting has occurred.

An unofficial telegram states that the airmen with the Kwangtung forces dropped seventeen bombs on Wuchow.

Canton, June 25.—The opposition of commanders of British ships plying the West River against search by Cantonese army and navy officers has been removed, an arrangement having been reached between the British Consulate-General at Canton and the local Chinese authorities whereby the Customs authorities are to co-operate in the search with Cantonese military or naval officers on patrol duty on the rivers or at the ports.

Mannix To Reach Shanghai Today

Archbishop Mannix of Melbourne, will arrive in Shanghai this morning on the steamer Kleist from Hongkong for a short stay prior to his departure on Wednesday for a tour of Japan.

A delegation of Shanghai Roman Catholics will meet Archbishop Mannix at the dock. A tiffin will be given in his honor at Siccawei by the Jesuit Fathers this noon after which the visitor will visit the various Catholic hospital and other institutions in Shanghai. At 4:30 until 6 p.m. a reception will be tendered by local Catholic organisations and the clergy at the Carlton cafe.

While in Shanghai Dr. Mannix will consult with local Catholic leaders on the subject of missionary work. The Maynooth Mission to China has now two ecclesiastical training colleges in Ireland one in America and one in Australia and it is with the object of forming a first-hand opinion on the demands for a like institution for the Far East that Dr. Mannix is coming to China.

Gen. Wood And Son Have Close Call

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, June 27.—General Leonard Wood and his son, Lieutenant Osborne Wood, narrowly escaped being run down by a train near Ligao, in Albay. Their automobile was speeding along a road lined with heavy timber, shutting off the view, and crossed a railway track less than ten yards from a freight train which had not signalled its approach.

ENVOY TO LEAVE

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, June 26.—Mr. Chang Ku, the Chinese representative on the International Communications Conference, is leaving within a few days to return to China to report to the Government on the proceedings at the Conference. When Mr. Chang returns, he will resume his post as Assistant Director of the Lunghai Railway.

Ohio Congressman Smokes Former Emperor's $2,000 Pipe

REPRESENTATIVE Roy C. Fitzgerald, of Dayton, Ohio, photographed in his office in Washington while taking a few puffs from a $2,000 meerchaum pipe once owned by the late Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria. The pipe, said to be one of the most remarkable specimens of meerchaum carving in the world, is now owned by L. O. Shank, of Dayton.

There are nine figures on the pipe, illustrating the experience of eight youths with their first try at clandestine tobacco smoking. Several of them exhibit the different degrees of nausea while the ninth, a little girl, is tugging at her brother's coat. He unable to stand upright, is being embraced by the leader of the "gang."

The pipe is said to have been presented to Emperor Francis Joseph by Archduke Franz Ferdinand, whose assassination started the World War.

Council Firm In Plan To License Rice Shops

Contention Is Advanced That No Hardships Will Be Worked Upon Dealers; Guilds Say They Are Unable To Get Proper Supply

While the price of rice continues steadily to mount and dealers are holding to their threat to strike if the licensing regulation promulgated by the Municipal Council is brought into effect on July 1 it is quite plain in the most recent of the various communications on the subject that no change in plan is contemplated and that dealers will be required to take out licenses if they are to continue in business in the International Settlement.

A considerable number of unloaded rice junks are in Shanghai in Soochow Creek and on the Nantao Bund. These have been arriving for the past ten days and their cargoes have not been moved as rice dealers generally have not been buying in anticipation of striking. The price of rice of the first grade went to $11 a picul yesterday.

It is reported that many of the larger hongs and concerns employing large numbers of Chinese workers have been buying large quantities of rice which is being stored to meet conditions in the event that the strike develops. Authorities of the French Concession have set in motion plans to bring in shipments of rice from Saigon if the need arises.

WORKERS GO OUT

Between 500 and 600 workers of the China General Edison Company quit work for a time on Saturday demanding that they be paid in advance in order that they might be able to buy stocks of rice. When this demand was made plain to the company it was granted and the workers returned to their posts.

With the expectation that disturbances will follow the closing of the rice shops Chinese property owners and merchants have addressed an appeal to the Chief of the Woosung-Shanghai constabulary to increase the number of police in Chapei and Nantao after the first of the month.

The position that the rice guilds have taken is set forth in a letter addressed to the Municipal Council from the general secretary of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Y. H. Yang. In reply to this Mr. E. S. B. Rowe, Acting Secretary of the Municipal Council explains the council's purposes and points out that no hardships will be worked upon rice dealers by the new regulation.

POSITION OF GUILDS

The letter to the Municipal Council dated June 22 follows:

Dear Sir.—In reply to your letter of the 20th instant re measures adopted for licensing the sale of rice, we beg to state that after our President's conference with you, the Council's explanation of the reasons for its action as well as assurances were immediately conveyed to the Chia Koo Tang Rice Guild whose reply is now in our hand.

The Guild is not convinced with the practicability of Council's assurance "that it appreciated and would support in every way the provision of adequate facilities to rice dealers to assist them in obtaining an ample stock of rice for the use of the residents in the Settlement" for it contends that no ample stock can be obtained so long as the dealers are apprehensive of violating the Municipal regulation for hoarding. In fact hoarding to a certain extent is prerequisite to an ample stock. The Guild, therefore, asks for the withdrawal of the Municipal Notification No. 1854 if the Council intends to truly assist the rice dealers in obtaining an ample stock.

We are of the opinion that if the Council wishes to keep a correct record of the quantity of rice available for the food supply of the Settlement, it seems that the object can be reached by requiring the rice Guilds to inspect the stocks and to submit a weekly report thereof instead of having police inspecting the stores. This procedure would be in entire accordance with Chinese customs. The Guilds as you are aware are quite responsible and the Council can count on their sense of responsibility to do the work in an efficient and satisfactory manner. Should this suggestion meet with your approval, the Chamber will be pleased to ask the rice Guilds to comply with it.

THE REPLY

The reply to the foregoing communication in which the position of the Municipal Council is explained is as follows:

It is noted that the Guild now states that the rice shops cannot obtain sufficient stocks of rice because they are apprehensive of violating the Municipal regulations against hoarding and profiteering and it is therefore suggested that the licensing procedure be cancelled.

To every public improvement there are opponents on public or personal, on real or fanciful grounds, and the rice licensing procedure is no exception. It is impossible, however, to cancel any reasonable measures undertaken for the public good because it is feared that irresponsible people might abuse it. Rather is it requisite and desirable that the rice shops should co-operate with the Council in every way and bring to light without the least delay any instance in which abuse is committed by any person of those plain and simple conditions which are set forth on the licence.

In these conditions, there are but two which do not appear upon every licence in the settlement, and are therefore, special and peculiar to the rice shops. No. 5 requires that a correct stock record be kept so that the total quantity of grain available can at any time be ascertained. It is not intended to make the rice shops make periodical returns or to trouble them in any way, and there is no reason to suppose that after July 1, the position of the rice shops will be any different from what it is now.

The other condition, No. 6, requires that rice shops shall observe all regulations directed against hoarding or profiteering. There are no such regulations at

LLOYD GEORGE ASKS IRISH 'PRESIDENT' TO LONDON

Premier Ignores 'Dignity' In Effort For Peace

OFFERS SAFETY

Move Will Put Blame For Further Strife On Rebels

(Reuter's Service)

London, June 25.—Mr. Lloyd George has written to Mr. Eamonn de Valera, "President of the Irish Republic," saying that the Government are anxious that the King's appeal for conciliation at the opening of the Ulster Parliament shall not be in vain. The Government, therefore, invite Mr. de Valera and any of his colleagues, to whom safe-conduct would be granted, to come to London to expore to the utmost with the Premier of Northern Ireland (Sir James Craig) the possibility of a settlement.

The letter says the Government make the invitation with "a fervent desire to end the ruinous conflict which for centuries has embittered the relations between the peoples of England and Ireland, who ought to live in neighborly harmony, and whose cooperation would mean so much, not only to the Empire, but to humanity."

A similar letter, in alternative terms, has been sent to Sir James Craig.

The Prime Minister's action is hailed as a praiseworthy disregard of personal dignity and of the forms commonly governing negotiations and as marking a supreme effort on the part of the Government to establish peace and as a prelude to the abandonment of a policy which is neither war nor peace. Because, in the event of an unfavorable reply, the Government will have no alternative but to take up arms in a determined spirit and accomplish by force what apparently cannot be achieved by other means.

U.S. NAVAL BILL CARRIES TOTAL OF $417,000,000

Borah Amendment Calling For Disarmament Parley, Carried

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Washington, June 24.—The conferees of the House of Representatives and Senate have agreed that the Naval Bill shall carry a total appropriation of $417,000,000. The bill will also carry the amendment proposed by Senator Borah in favor of a conference on disarmament. Among provisions introduced by the Senate which have been eliminated is the one for the establishment of a destroyer base at Guam. The agreement reached provides for the construction of two aeroplane carriers, the creation of a Bureau of Aeronautics in the Navy Department and a total personnel of 106,000 enlisted men.

AD CLUB PARTY IS BIG SUCCESS DESPITE RAIN

Hastily Constructed Tent And Mat Shed Protect Mr. Kan's Guests

Mention the word "jazz" and immediately attention is drawn to the American style of dancing. Introduced first in the States, it soon found its way to the Continent and apparently was received with high favor. Now we see it as a popular pastime in Shanghai. Visitors to any of the Cabarets in Shanghai will frequently see Chinese men and girls indulging in the mysteries of the fox trot, waltz and one step, but it is unusual and always attracts the attention of the foreigners present.

Should any one ask however, if there is any sentiment among the Chinese for this Western style of amusement, just mention the Garden Party of the Advertising Club held Sunday at the home of Mr. Kan Chiu-nam, 75 couples on the floor at one time tripping the light fantastic to the tune of Harry Kerrey's orchestra and that at least one half of them were Chinese.

The occasion was the first social gathering of The Advertising Club and the success which attended it will undoubtedly cause it to be repeated in the not far distant future. Mr. Kan, the general manager of the Nanyang Brothers Tobacco Co., offered the beautiful grounds of his home for the occasion and performed his duties as a host in a most creditable manner.

As the time approached for the party and the weather showed no signs of favorable conditions, it became necessary to provide some means of protecting the guests from the elements and accordingly a huge canvas tent with something like two hundred yards of mat sheds were erected over night and the turf underneath covered with bamboo matting.

Tea and refreshments were served, a Cantonese band played, there were exhibitions of ventriloquism and magic. More dancing followed and then the guests were called together in front of the house where a battery of cameras were turned loose on the assembled party. Then Mr. T. B. Chang, the presiding officer of the Club, welcomed the guests and called on Mr. Kan to speak a few words to the members of the Ad. Club.

As each guest departed from the grounds he was presented with souvenirs which were donated by the commercial houses for advertising purposes. Cigarettes, calendars, playing cards, key chains, erasers, fly swaters, and novelties of every nature were presented to each member of the Club and his friends. Those firms who contributed were:

American Sales Campany.
American Trading Company.
Andersen, Meyer and Co.
British American Tobacco Co.
International Dispensary.
Nanyang Brothers Tobacco Co.
Standard Oil Company.

Earthquake Pictures

That Shanghai, the city of frivolity, has given $60,000 to Earthquake Relief in Kansu through the Chinese Foreign Famine Relief Committee is not generally known even by the donors. The showing of the Kansu Earthquake pictures at the Olympic Theater tonight will give Shanghai an opportunity to visualise the kind of relief which it is assisting in this far-away province. Proceeds from the lecture will go to swell the Kansu relief funds.

The unique dramatic as well as iscientific interest of the lecture has inspired several of the prominent local clubs and organisations to circularise their members inviting their attendance, and a large house is anticipated. Booking for the pictures, as well as the extra shocks to be thrown in by the A.D.C., is going on rapidly at Moutrie's.

Students Yield To Peking Ultimatum

Peking, June 24.—The student strike in Tsinghua College has caused a separation among the students of the senior class, fifty-one members of which, confronted with an ultimatum from the College authorities to the effect that a refusal to take the examinations will delay their departure for America one year, have weakened and decided to present themselves in the classrooms for their final tests.

The students of Tsinghua, although not directly affected by the difficulty between the Ministry of Education and the unpaid teachers and untaught students of the government schools, have nevertheless been on sympathy strike for several weeks. This strike is declared to exist until the end of this term. The seniors, whose further study in America depends upon their taking the examinations, first resolved to follow the policy of the majority of the student-body, and refrain from taking their finals, even at the cost of the trans-Pacific trip, for so long as the undergraduates refused to present themselves for tests. The authorities of the College then made known that students not taking exams by the set date should be considered to have resigned from the College, and required to rematriculate next year as seniors, doing their final year the second time before qualifying for study abroad.

All the members of the senior class would, it is said, like to disconnect themselves from the striking element insofar as their regard for the strike itself is concerned. Twenty-nine of them, however, have determined, for the sake of preserving the unity of the student movement and the sanctity of majority decision among the student-body, to sacrifice their ambition to go to America immediately and wish their fifty-one dissenting classmates, to whom America means more just now than student union, Bon Voyage.

The twenty-nine self-sacrificing seniors have written the CHINA PRESS explaining their position. They sign themselves as follows:

(Signed) Wang Chang-lin, Wen To, Shen Tsung-lien, Shen Yu-chien, Liao Yun-kao, Wu Chai-lin, Shen Jen-pei Chien Tsung-pao, Kao Ching-yin, Sah Pen-tung, Tung Ta-yu, Sun Tseng-ching, Chen Chung-wu, Shih Chao-tso, Shih Chao-han, Ho Hao-jo, Wang Chao-mei, Tsou Wei-wei, Hsu Fu-chi, Huang Cho-fan, Lo Lung-chi, Meng Hsien-min, Ku Te-ming, Fei Pei-chi, Sun Tsao-hsuan, Chen Chih-chang, Chao Lien-fang, Howe Chi-fang, Chen Vien-tsung.

DOMINION DAY FRIDAY

Dominion Day will be observed by Canadian residents of Shanghai on Friday when a picnic will be held under the auspices of the Canadian Association of China. The picnic will be held at Jessfield Park and is to be at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Secretary D. C. MacMinn, passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, requests that all Canadians communicate with him.

NOTED BAPTIST PREACHER SOON TO VISIT CHINA

Dr. Fosdick Of New York Will Conduct Kuling Conference In August

Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, the noted Baptist preacher, who during the past two years has been preaching in the first Presbyterian Church, New York City, is visiting China this summer upon the invitation of the Kuling Conference Committee.

Dr. Fosdick is due to arrive in Shanghai on July 19. He will go at once to Mokanshan where he will be from the 21st to the 24th, during which days the Mokanshan Conference will be held. At the Kuling Conference, during the week of August first to sixth, Dr. Fosdick will conduct the devotional periods each morning at seven o'clock. He will deliver the main address each day at eleven fifteen. The morning and evening church services on Sunday, July 31 and August 7, will also be conducted by Dr. Fosdick.

After two or three days spent at Peitaiho, where he is expected to speak on Sunday, August 14, Dr. Fosdick will proceed to Karuizawa where he will be the convention speaker.

Dr. Fosdick is well known to both the missionaries and the Chinese Christians through his books: "The Meaning of Prayer," "The Manhood of the Master," "The Meaning of Service," "The Assurance of Immortality," "The Second Mile," "The Challenge of the Present Crisis," and "The Church's Message to the Nation." Of these books over half a million copies have been sold in the past few years. Dr. Fosdick is considered one of the leading preachers in America.

Hupeh Tuchun Now Willing To Give 'Guarantees'

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hankow, June 27.—The Tuchun of Hupeh, General Wang Chan-yuan, is reported by the Central China Post as stating in an interview that he was prepared to guarantee that there would be no further disturbances in the Wuchan cities. Mutineers, including several important officers, were, he said, still being executed. The most important work in hand was the restoration of the native city of Wuchang and all efforts were being directed to this end.

General Wang is quoted as adding that he could afford to laugh at conspiracies against himself and declaring it to be his intention to remain to his post as Tuchun.

Mixed Court Jottings

For beating and kicking a ricsha coolie at the Wayside gardens a foreigner named A. A. Ostpoff was sentenced to two months' imprisonment by Assessor Hutchison and Magistrate Li of the Mixed Court yesterday. If the man is found to be mentally deranged, as the police suspect, sentence will be suspended. The defendant admitted that he "shook and kicked the coolie a little to teach him better manners." The Assessor, in giving sentence denounced the man's action as a singularly brutal attack and stated that only the proof that he is insane will save him from jail. The coolie is in hospital suffering from concussion of the brain.

Proprietors of opium dens at 1498 Kashing Road and 338 North Honan Road were ordered to pay fines of $30 each or go to jail for a month by the Mixed Court yesterday.

A Hungarian named Antoni Yassi was fined $5, with the alternative of three days' imprisonment, for creating a disturbance while drunk at the Victoria Bar, Chapoo Road, Sunday.

Nine Chinese arrested in a gambling raid at 2 Kuling Road Sunday were charged in the Mixed Court yesterday. Mr. K. E. Newman, appearing to defend, protested that this was not in any sense a case of public gambling but merely an instance of entertainment following a dinner party. Inspector Sinclair, who conducted the raid, stated that the men gambled for very high stakes, as was indicated by the number of chips found. The court dismissed one of the men who appeared and the others forfeited bail to the amount of $100 each. One of the defendants was interpreter for a high police official.

Manila Cinema Man Is Shanghai Visitor

Sailing on the China Mail steamer Nanking tomorrow Frank H. Goulette, owner of the Lyric cinema and a circuit of other motion picture houses in Manila and the provinces, leaves for a business trip to the United States and Europe, expecting to return in some six months time via Suez. As the pioneer of the cinema business in the Philippines Mr. Goulette has perhaps done more than any other one man in the islands to establish the trade on the high level it now occupies in Manila and has been a leader in bringing high class pictures to the Philippines, as well as having been the leader in importing high grade vaudeville acts.

Coming to the islands in 1899 as a sergeant in the famous 33rd Volunteer Infantry he participated in all of the engagements in northern Luzon of that fighting Texas regiment, including the rescue of Lieutenant Gilmore, U. S. Navy, and sailors from a navy gunboat who had been prisoners of the insurgents for more than 10 months. He was mentioned in army a number of times for gallantry in action and is entitled to wear a number of service medals.

CHINA TO START FIRST AIR MAIL SERVICE JULY 1

First Link Of Peking-Shanghai Route, Peking To Tsinan, To Be Operated

China will inaugurate its first mail service and bring into operation the first part of Peking-Shanghai air route on July 1, according to plans set forth in an official announcement being made today by Mr. C. H. Shields, Postal Commissioner.

For the present the aerial service, which will transport all categories of mail matter, will operate between Peking and Tsinan, a distance of about 200 miles, but mails will be accepted for more distant points and will be taken by air route over from Peking to Tsinan and thence to destination by the usual means of transmission.

According to schedules announced mail airplanes will leave Peking at 5 p.m. Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays and will leave Tsinan at 10:30 a.m. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

The use of special aerial stamps will be required for mail matter to go by the air route. The special air tariff, in addition to the postal rate, is provisionally fixed as follows

Letters 15 cents per unit of 20 grammes or fraction thereof.

Post cards 15 cents, single.

Post cards 30 cents, double.

Other articles 15 cents per unit of 50 grammes or fraction thereof.

Parcels up to one kilo 60 cents. Each succeeding kilo up to 10 kilos 30 cents.

Insured mails and parcels will not be accepted for aerial transmission.

POLICE DRIVERS SENTENCED FOR OPIUM SMUGGLING

Municipal Chauffeurs Sent To Jail For Two Months

Two months' imprisonment each was the sentence given yesterday by Assessor Hutchison and Magistrate Li in the case of the two police department chauffeurs who were charged with using one of the departmental motor cars in an opium smuggling expedition.

The car, that was placed at the disposal of Captain E. I. M. Barrett, was seized by a Chinese constable near a jetty in the Yangtszepoo district and contained $5,000 worth of Indian opium. The two chauffeurs escaped but gave themselves up later, Captain Barrett's driver making a confession.

The men were represented in court by Mr. J. G. Priestwood and Mr. J. B. Davies, while Mr. R. C. Faithful prosecuted. Mr. Roberts, of the Customs, gave evidence to the effect that the opium was smuggled and must have come into the country since the prohibitory order went into effect. The constable who made the seizure stated that the first accused, Captain Barrett's chauffeur, admitted that there was opium in the car and offered him $5 to let the matter drop. He then tried to arrest the men and they fled.

The first accused declared that he was led into the smuggling by the second accused, who drove for the heads of the Criminal Intelligence Department of the force. This the second accused denied, stating that he was in his room at Central police station on the night in question. He admitted having driven away from the station some time between 12 and 1 a.m. but said that he left the car almost immediately and returned to the station. The gateman at the station declared that the second accused returned at about 5 a.m.

Municipal Staff Changes

London Observes League Birthday

(Reuter's Service)

London, June 25.—Today's demonstration in Hyde Park in commemoration of the anniversary of the formation of the League of Nations was favored with glorious weather. Each of the London branches formed a procession with decorated motor cars and representatives of different nations took part, wearing their national dress, also numerous Labor, and religious bodies. The distinguished guests were received by the Archbishop of Canterbury and Lord Robert Cecil in a tent which had been erected at the entrance to the park, and included the Ambassadors and Ministers of 48 countries which are members of the League. Speeches were delivered from 12 platforms.

Continue Inquest On Sikh Trooper Shot By Chinese

Another Man Taken Into Custody In Connection With Riot

The inquest into the circumstances in connection with the death of the Sikh trooper who was shot by a Chinese on Thibet Road on the night of June 20 following a disturbance and the shooting of a Chinese policeman at the New World, was continued by British Magistrate G. W. King yesterday.

Employes of the New World gave evidence regarding the trouble there and the shooting of the watchman and told of the armed man running out to the street and toward the spot where the Indian was shot, near Kiukiang Road.

Mr. C. S. Crawford, of the Hongkong-Shanghai bank, told of placing the trooper in his car and taking him to the General Hospital, where the victim, though obviously badly wounded, was refused admission by a foreigner and had to be taken to a Sikh hospital.

Another man was charged in connection with the disturbance at the New World. He had been arrested by the Wusieh authorities. He was remanded in custody for trial with eight others tomorrow.

Japan's Chambers Favor Disarmament

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, June 26.—The Associated Chambers of Commerce of Japan which are in session here, have passed a resolution in favor of a conference of the powers looking to disarmament. The resolution states that, the League of Nations being an accomplished fact, the limitation of armaments now becomes a subject for serious discussion in all countries. It declares it to be urgent that Japan, standing for justice, humanity and the maintenance of the world's peace, should conclude an agreement with the powers regarding disarmament in order that international peace should be guaranteed and more energy devoted to industrial development.

Ungern's Defeat Denied At Harbin

assuming a more definite character. Semenoff demands from Merkulof 500,000 yen in cash, and one-half of the state property in the Vladivostok custom warehouses; a large part of the property is consigned from foreign countries for Soviet Russia. It is rumored that Merkuloff is willing to comply with the demands

Harbin, June 23.—The Kappelists in Maritime Province declare that they do not want any more civil war; but if Semenoffists want it, they are willing to fight it out in the Maritime Province on the side of Far Eastern Republic. This declaration is accepted by the Government military authorities with a grain of salt.

While believing that there are men in the ranks of Kappelists sincere in this declaration, the population as a rule can see no difference between the Kappelists and Semenoffists as it was the Kappelists who made the overthrow at Vladivostok. The Government military authorities believe that the sudden change in the intentions of Kappelists was caused by their fear of being too much of a tool in the hands of the Japanese and of losing ground in view of the hostile attitude of the population towards them.

Hongs Anticipate Strike, Are Buying Rice Supplies

the present time, and the Council trusts it will never be compelled to make them. But if a state of emergency were to arise, with popular tumult and disturbance, the shops are surely aware that while they would receive adequate protection, they would have to obey all special regulations, whether licensed or not.

Therefore, Condition No. 6 adds nothing and takes away nothing, to the Council's existing regulations, and is merely stated in the licence for regularity of procedure.

I may add for your information that there is no present necessity for visits to rice shops by representatives of the Health Office. The latter have neither the requisite number of staff available, nor, in the case of uncooked rice, is there apparent need for such supervision.

OUTLINES PURPOSES

Briefly then, the position is this, that the Police will from time to time ascertain whether each shop has a license. If such is the case no further action will ordinarily be taken. When however, the Council requires to be in possession of information as to the quantity of rice available, the official authorised will be empowered to make the requisite enquiry.

I need hardly remind you however, that if the six big Guilds you mention, of their own accord, should be able to obtain correct information as to the quantity of rice, the Commissioner of Police would doubtless readily accept their statement, so that the occasions upon which it would be necessary to take the trouble to visit each rice shop would be very infrequent, while in the case of the small shops, it would probably not be necessary to control them at all. At the same time the powers of the officers concerned in the matter must be made so plain that there can at no time be cause for misunderstanding in the slightest degree.

These, then, are the details, as to the manner in which the licensing is expected to work, and it is not to be supposed that, except for the obligation to keep books and pay $1 per half year for registration, that any rice shop will be more troubled by licensing than it is at present.

I am to add, for the information of all concerned, that, while the Council will refrain from putting into force those licensing measures which are undertaken for the public good, on account of the short-sighted opposition of ignorant and foolish persons, it is at all times ready to redress grievances, and if therefore, within three months, any rice shop owners consider that they are caused hardship by reason of the licensing procedure, the Council is willing to give their representations its careful and sympathetic consideration.

Since, therefore, certain of the rice shops have enlisted your assistance in making their representations, this reply accordingly is made to you direct, and I have to express the Council's expectation that, in accordance with those excellent traditions of close co-operation and maintenance of harmony, which have always characterised the relations between the Council and yourselves, you will take such steps as are necessary to remove all misapprehension and assure the concerned of the Council's watchful care over all engaged in the legitimate furtherance of trade in the Settlement.

American Labor Condemns Soviet

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Denver, June 24.—The resolution of the American Federation of Labor in favor of the total exclusion of Japanese and all Orientals from the United States instructed the Executive Council to endeavor to prevent the modification of Chinese seclusion and to seek the repeal of the "Gentlemen's Agreement" with Japan. It declared: "Japanese cunningness has outwitted the law. In California alone there are over 100,000 Japanese. This peril is not only serious to California, but a positive menace to the whole nation."

Denver, June 25.—The convention of the American Federation of Labor, which is in progress here, has passed a resolution that the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy and the Civil Service Commission be requested to discharge all aliens in the employ of their departments who fail to qualify for citizenship.

(Reuter's Service)

Denver, June 25.—The Federation of Labor has overwhelmingly upheld its Executive's repudiation of the International Federation of Trade Unions, and has adopted a report condemning the Russian Soviet regime as the tyrannical enemy of labor and destructive to self-government.

RUSS BUREAU HERE IS 'CZARIST,' SAYS JOURNALIST

Former Editor Of 'Chronicle' Refuses To Comply With Registry Order

Alleging the foreign staff of the Bureau of Russian Affairs to be composed entirely of the former Consulate personnel and "Czarist" in its policies, Mr. G. F. Semeshko, former editor of the Shanghai Chronicle, has written to the Chinese Commissioner of Russian Affairs declining to comply with advertised instructions for the registry of Russian citizens. The letter follows:

"To the Honorable Chinese Commissioner of Russian Affairs in Shanghai.

"Sir: In the Russian newspaper, Russian Echo, appears an advertisement of the Bureau, of Russian Affairs, which is under your jurisdiction. This advertisement calls upon Russian citizens living in Shanghai to register at this Bureau. This notice, published as an "obligatory measure," threatens withdrawal of protection from all those who fail to register within a determinate period.

"In accordance with a decree of the President of the great Chinese Republic, dated September 23, 1920, the Chinese government takes under its protection all Russian citizens living in China and defends their interests.

"I do not wish to be deprived of the protection of my interests by the Chinese government, but on the other hand I prefer to deprive myself of this protection rather than register in the Bureau of Russian Affairs.

"As one who has lived in Shanghai over two years, I have had good reasons for this decision. These reasons are:

"1.—The Bureau of Russian Affairs is composed exclusively of the members of the former Russian consulate, beginning with the former Russian Consul, V. F. Grosse and ending with his clerks, Mr. Tchetverenko and Mr. Rekov.

"2.—The members of the former Russian consulate, Messrs. Grosse, Ivanoff and Metzler, were tools of the overthrown Czarist government. They supported the Kultur government in all its enterprises, precipitating civil war in Russia, producing the Atamans, and, as a result, bringing forth the notorious murderers, Kalmikoff and Baron Ungern.

"3.—As has been disclosed, the members of the former consulate had close connection with the white reactionary organisations.

"In the meantime, the white guards from the organisations of Ungern, Semenoff and others are the ones who recently captured Vladivostok. They are systematically waging wars, executing and torturing their political opponents—loyal Russian citizens—as has occurred in Dauria, Grodekovo and many other places.

"Understanding all this, I cannot give any information to the adherents of the White Guards, because I cannot have any assurance in what way this information will be used. Perhaps if I comply, it will be at the risk of my life.

"These reasons will undoubtedly govern all Russian citizens, and I shall not be surprised, if, notwithstanding this 'obligatory measure,' Russian citizens will be warned not to enter into relations with the open enemies of the Russian people.

"Having lived in the foreign settlement of Shanghai for two years, I am reluctant to lose the protection of the Chinese government, but I regret that I must decline to register in the so-called Bureau of Russian Affairs, with its present personnel.

"Believe me, I am, Sir,

Yours very respectfully,

G. F. SEMESHKO."

Berlin To Release American Property

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, June 22.—French, British and Italian diplomatic circles are highly pleased at the outcome of the conversations among M. Briand, Lord Curzon and Count Bonin Longare.

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

New York, June 25.—A despatch from Berlin states that the German Foreign Office has announced that American property held in the custody of the German Government will be released immediately in order to facilitate the resumption of trade between Germany and the United States. Much of the property so held has already been restored.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, June 21.—After a statement by M. Barthou, Minister of War, reporting that there was sufficient strength in the Rhine Army to give France entire security, the Cabinet decided to discharge the 1919 class as from the 25th instant, thus enabling the soldiers to take part in the harvest.

British Dirigible To Cross Atlantic

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

New York, June 25.—According to a despatch from London, the giant British dirigible "R 38" which was recently bought by the United States and will make the flight across the Atlantic in charge of an American crew, behaved perfectly on a trial flight which lasted six and one-half hours. The big airship carried forty-eight passengers. On her flight to America she will be in command of Flight Commander L.H. Maxfield.

Washington, June 25.—In view of the frequency of air fatalities recently, Secretary Denby has requested that every precaution be taken to prevent others. "There have been too many accidents to suit me," his letter remarks, pointing out that four accidents of this nature, resulting in eighteen deaths, have occurred within the past few weeks.

JACK AND GEORGES NOT TO FIGHT UNDER FAMOUS QUEENSBERRY REGULATIONS

American Rules, Promulgated By International Sporting Club Of New York—How Fistiana's Legislation Developed Centuries Through

BY ARTHUR WEST

Next Saturday afternoon a temporary recess is to be called in the Entente Cordiale that has existed between the Star Spangled Banner and the Marseillaise ever since Marie Joseph Paul Yves Roch Gilbert Du Motiex Lafayette, who, you will recall, was a French marquis, traveled across a rough and turbulent ocean to horn into an alien family quarrel, thereby disproving the old theory that he who butts into a row of that nature does so at the risk of his neck, as witness the American cigar: and boulevards that have been named after him.

During this recess a suave and amiable young Frenchman in whose veins there courses a concentrated essense of mule heels will attempt to separate the Honorable Jack Dempsey from his title as Taipan of all Fistiana, along with all the motion picture and vaudeville perogatives that go with it.

All the above, of course, is a waste of words, since it tells you nothing except what you already knew. What I started out to talk about, until I happened to think of General Pershing's famous spooch delivered upon the occasion of his arrival in Paris, which was a reminder of our old friend Lafayette, which in turn inspired reflections upon the long stretch of goodwill that has distinguished the relations between the United States and that dear Republique Francaise—what I had in mind when all these mental extraterritorialities stepped onto the track directly ahead of my train of thought, was the fact that those two raw meat eaters and man maulers extraordinary will NOT operate next Saturday under the fistic code sponsored by the Marquis of Queensberry sixty-five years ago, and which has governed squared circle combats ever since.

UNDER NEW RULES

The Franco-American rumpus, on the contrary, will be conducted under rules and regulations only recently promulgated by the International Sporting Club, of New York, which code has been adopted as official by fifteen of the states in the American union, these states being members of the recently established American Boxing Association, an organisation that seeks to control boxing in America in the same manner that the Amateur Athletic Union controls track and field sports. These rules have come to be known as the "American rules," and they will be adopted all over the world, in all probability, because they fill a need in pugilistic legislation that has been felt a great many years. Both Dempsey and Carpentier have already fought under the new regulations, the former against Miske and Brennan, and the French contender against Battling Levinsky.

The professional bruisers always have been handicapped by the lack of a proper code under which to operate, and it was largely because of this lack that the sport, which is essentially vigorous, to say the least, developed, or retained, father, a coarseness and brutality which made it a mark for the Puritans and sentimentalists for hundreds of years. Even now, with all the refinements that have developed from the application of new and better rules the pastime cannot be said to have won the unequivocal endorsement of our best citizens. That is, not openly—not so you could notice it unless you happened to come upon them out behind the wood shed, secretly and eagerly devoring the newspaper accounts of important battles.

LEGISLATION LAGGED

The history of pugilistic legislation is an interesting study, and as old as the game itself. It seems strange, however, that the development of rules and regulations covering the sport should have been so slow, considering the tremendous popularity of fist fighting for prizes from the Homeric age down to the present one. The early Greeks, while great devotees of the sport, do not seem to have had any rules other than that "no wrestling, kicking or biting" was allowed. Under their system the fight continued until one contestant "owned himself beaten."

This last rule, while seemingly humane enough, led the emperor Lycurgus to put a ban on pugilism, "lest the Spartans should become accustomed to

POMPEII MAKES STYLISH OFFER

Thinks Roughtown Champ Will Blaze Like Jewel Among Setting Of Ruins

BY 'BUGS' BAER

Dear Sir: There is only one appropriate place for your champion to train. Figuring on his record, past, present and future, Gink should train amid the ruins of Pompeii. As General Passenger Agent for the De Luxe Line of Form Fitting Ambulances, we hereby make you the offer of one million dollars to come to Pompeii. Among solacing ruins, the ashes of dead empires and the dust of thermos bottleless centuries, the champion of Roughtown can put the finishing touches on his career. We have a fine line of Egyptian mummies to act as sparring partners to your bloomer champ.

Yours with reservations,
ELLIS TWIGGER,
Pompeii, Italy.

The Dempsey-Carp knuckle orchard blooms in July. The champion of Roughtown meets the loser for the beeve title. Less than two months to go and he hasn't picked his training quarters yet.

We have had splendid offers from Boston, Chicago, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Omaha, Twin Cities, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Speerblatt. Now Pompeii leaps forth with the most generous offer of all.

The champ will pick his training quarters next Monday. Ash Can, Texas, offered Gink ten million if he stays away. Memphis offers him double if he goes to Quebec. Cape Cod requests eight yards of waivers on Gink. Every town is anxious to see this splendid type of manhood grubbing handouts at their back doors.

A Philadelphia surgeon has succeeded in keeping a chicken heart alive for one year. That is a wonderful achievement, if it were anything but a chicken heart.

What the world needs is some scientist who can keep the lion hearts alive. And Gink Fowler is the lion heart of the century. When defeat lamps him in the glim, Gink used to close his eye. He knew no Armegeddon, Waterloo or Perth Amboy. He is confident of plunging to victory in July. He is so sure of winning, that he has offered his place in the ring to a ticket speculator. That is confidence par boneheadum.

However, Girk refuses to train amid the ruins of Pompeii. He wants to make his own ruins. He will take Dempsey like Grant took Richmond. But in four years less time. The Roughtown champ's defense is a perfect sieve. His attack is more powerful than a rush of canaries to the birdseed.

Possibly the champ will train in Uekin, China. The soap burners of Pekin offer Gink one million dollars. Not for the fight. But for his laundry rights. Gink will accept and trade in his celluloid neck chassis for a 1921 model.

Moscow offers Gink five million in cold Russian cash. We admit that if that ain't cold, then icebergs are hot.

Gink is under the wing of Mike Donaldson, who will see that he trains faithfully. The champion has a bad habit of jumping on back of bologna wagons, flying kites and asking the clerk to put gold initials in his new straw hat. Mike has hired fourteen waiters as sparring partners and seven Delmonico chefs for heavy training work.

BASEBALL GAME FOR TOMORROW; LOCALS VS. NAVY

Coolies Busy Draining Diamond To Prepare For League Planned

While the baseball coolies and the ground keepers at the Race Course are pumping and draining the water off the diamond local managers are busy fixing up a new schedule of games.

There is lots of talent in prospect for a new list of games, in spite of the fact that the destroyer flotilla is billed to leave town tonight or tomorrow. With the arrival of the Albany, and the Huron proper team, and the Huron Marines available, the Shanghai Baseball Club had a four team league assured. And when the Wilmington arrives from upriver, a fifth team might be added.

Manager J. H. Ross, and matchmaker of the local club last night said that he was in communication with the athletic officers of the Huron and the Albany in an attempt to cook up a new schedule. He hopes to begin play tomorrow.

The schedule that is contemplated provides for games with Shanghai opposing the Navy teams as follows:

Wednesday, June 29.
Friday, July 1.
Saturday, July 2.
Sunday, July 3.
Monday, July 4.
Wednesday, July 6.
Saturday, July 9.
Sunday, July 10.

Tomorrow's game is in fair prospect with the clearer weather. If no more rain intervenes the grounds should be firm enough for play. Shanghai will oppose either the Huron team or the Huron Marines. The local management could not announce just who would play last night. The game will be called at 5:15 p.m. Friday is a bank holiday so a game might be started earlier. Saturday, of course will call for a 3 o'clock start, and Sunday likewise. Monday, the Fourth will be the big feature of the spring baseball season. Manager Ross last night said that he had not yet been notified as to which team would represent the Navy in this game, though it is almost a certainty that the Huron nine will be seen pitted against Will hoit's best for that day.

The new schedule promised for the next two weeks will bring out some interesting developments. If the Huron Marines enter the schedule they will surely bring with them the Huron's star twirler, Weaver, for he is a marine, and of course will pitch for his department. The Flagship nine, at the same time will lose their only dependable hurler. It is not known who they will work in Weaver's place unless it is Meade, who they tried out in last Wednesday's game against the 1st-13th Flotilla. It is possible however, that Weaver might feel strong enough to pitch for both Huron and Marines.

The Huron team will be handicapped also by the departure of the flotilla. Heuble and King whom the flagship has been drafting from the destroyers will not be available and substitutes must be found.

Dempsey Trains With Jack Sharkey

Two extremes. Here is Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, in a training bout with Jack Sharkey, contender for the bantam title. Dempsey declares that in picking out a lightning fast boxer such as Sharkey it will greatly develop his speed. Sharkey agrees with him.

American Team Beaten By British Clay Pigeon Men; Himrod Breaks 34

THE June Cup Competition and the special challenge match at clay pigeon shooting between American and British teams were held Sunday in spite of the rain. The contest between American and British teams went to the latter by a ten bird margin, and the June cup was won by Mr. E. H. Himrod with 34 breaks out of a possible 40, which with his 8 2-3 bird handicap, gave him the high score of 42 2-3. His nearest competitor was Mr. H. H. Read with a total of 35 plus 5½, or a total of 40½.

There were sixteen entries for the June cup competition, all handicapped under the club ratings, with conditions allowing 40 shots per man. The scores for the competition follow:

Himrod	34 plus 8 2/3	= 42 2/3
Algar	35 plus 5½	= 40½
Read	37 plus 2 2/3	= 39 2/3
Gande	36 plus 3 2/3	= 39 2/3
McEuen	31 plus 7	= 38
Monro-Home	28 plus 10	= 38
Hexamer	37 plus 1	= 38
Moller	31 plus 4	= 35
Barrett	24 plus 10	= 34
Nazer	32 plus 1 2/3	= 33 2/3
Hendrickson	27 plus 6½	= 33½
Beatty	27 plus 6 1/3	= 33 1/3
Gibson	32 scr.	= 32
Tuxford	22 plus 10	= 32
Aldridge	19 plus 10	= 29
Smith	retired.

Great interest attached to the challenge match between the American and English teams. It had been intended originally that five men should shoot on each team, but the enforced postponement of the match from a week ago Sunday and the departure of Mr. T. E. Doremus, one of the American team on the Empress of Russia Saturday, reduced the teams to four men each.

The contest was fairly even during the first round, but in the second round the Americans fell off badly, and were never able to recover the substantial lead which the Britons established. The final score was 140-130 as follows:

BRITISH TEAM
Read	37
Gande	36
Algar	35
Nazer	32
	140

AMERICAN TEAM
Hexamer	37
Himrod	34
Gibson	32
Hendrickson	27
	130

Mr. Read, the high man of the winning team won a cup as souvenir of the shoot.

The American team has challenged the British for a return match which will be held as soon as a new supply of clay birds is received from Japan. It is expected that these birds will arrive this week, in time for another shoot Sunday.

MACHINE GUN CO. HOLDS JUNE CUP SHOOT IN RAIN

MACARTNEY BATS FOUR HOURS WITH 345 RUNS TOTAL

Australians Make 608 For Seven Wickets; Army Beats Navy

(Reuter's Service)

London, June 25.—Playing against Notts today at Nottingham before an attendance numbering some 14,000 spectators, in brilliant and very hot weather, the Australians, captained by Bardsley (Armstrong and Collins not playing), won the toss and elected to bat. The wicket was in perfect condition.

The Australians made 608 for seven wickets before stumps were drawn for the day. Their rate of scoring was the fastest of the present tour, and 500 runs were put on in 3 hours and 37 minutes. Macartney amassed 345, which is not only the highest individual score of the season, but the highest compiled by any Australian in England, beating Armstrong's 303 in a match against Sussex in 1905. Macartney batted in brilliant style and his wizardry magnetised the crowd. His hits included four sixes and 47 fours, and he was at the wickets nearly 4 hours. He gave a very easy chance in the slips when his score stood at 9, and difficult chances at 200 and 242. He was eventually out L.B.W. On his returning to the pavilion, the crowd cheered him with the wildest enthusiasm. Pellew contributed a century, which included a six and 15 fours. He gave an easy chance at 54. Taylor hit up 150.

In a match concluded today, the Army beat the Navy by ten wickets.

SHIMIDZU BEATS LYCETT IN TENNIS, UPSETTING DOPE

Wins 6-3, 9-11, 3-6, 6-2 And 10-8; Japanese Looks Better

(Reuter's Service)

London, June 26.—In the lawn-tennis championship tournament at Wimbledon yesterday, Shimidzu beat Lycett, 6-3, 9-11, 3-6, 6-2, 10-8, thus upsetting the popular confidence in Lycett, who was regarded as safe for the final round. Record crowds witnessed the match, which resulted in a test of stamina in gruelling heat.

Lycett had to be sponged and fed with champagne between every game, but he was soon unable to chase the Japanese player's lobs. In the last set, when the score stood at 7 games to 6 in his favor Lycett ran up to 40/15 but lost the game and eventually the set and rubber. There was a great demonstration at the close of the match.

Tilden expresses the opinion that Shimidzu will be a hard proposition to defeat. He is improving in every match. His driving is harder and his volleying more certain, and he is presenting a confidence in marked contrast to the diffidence he showed last year.

Jack And Georges Not To Fight Under Queensberry Rules

acknowledgment of defeat," which was not the sort of an idea that he wished to inculcate in the minds of Spartan youths. That rule of deciding a boxing match survived for centuries, and even to this day in the rural communities of the United States and England it is customary for two yokels, when they find themselves in a disagreement that admits of no compromise, to begin flailing each other with their fists, and to keep at it until one of them admits that he has had "enough." I myself have made more than one Iowa farm hand pronounce that fatal word, and I'm not sure that more than one of them didn't choke it, unwillingly and gaspingly, from my own throat.

"Lay on, MacBeth, and damned be he that first cries 'Hold, Enough!'"

Well, enough of that.

GREEK CODE

That the Greeks had a rough code to govern pugilism is indicated by the fact that they had a rule which forbade an adversary to kill his opponent, on penalty of losing the prize. Short of actually committing murder, however, there didn't seem to be many restrictions. The fighters began by sparring for openings, much the same as they do now, and continued without interruption until one man was beaten.

It was a favorite and effective fighting trick in those days to grab an opponent by the fingers and to quickly twist and dislocate them as a means of weakening the opposition. Quite an effective method of extracting the pep from the opposition, one might say.

We learn further that the Greeks practiced quick rushes which had for their aim the sudden breaking or dislocation of an arm or shoulder. What an esthetic thing they must have been, those Greek boxing contests! And how interesting must have been the lives of the Greek pork and beaners at Olympia! One wonders how they managed to have enough left to patronise the movies after what must have been their enormous outlays for court plaster and crutches.

Pugilism also was popular among the Romans, who copied the idea from the Greeks. At the great Roman games professional boxers were imported from the provinces, and from Africa, while a school of pugilism is reputed to have flourished at one time at Etruria.

After the fall of the Roman empire pugilism and professional boxing do not seem to have had much vogue until the seventeeth century, after which there are occasional references to it in English history. (This is the first of two articles. The next will appear tomorrow).

London, June 25.—The tie between the American professional, Hutchison, and Wethered, the Oxford University amateur, in the Open Golf Championship at St. Andrews, was played today and resulted in a win for the former. The scores were: Hutchison, 74 and 76; Wethered, 77 and 82. This is the first occasion on which the Open Championship has been won by an American.

Terry McGowan Given Farewell By Shanghai Fans

Terry McGowan, the popular umpire, and incidentally a first class baseball player, left port yesterday on the fuel ship Sailor Thompson for Manila, where he will trans-ship to a transport for home, and a check-out of the service. McGowan was presented with a souvenir ring by the Shanghai Baseball Club before his departure, engraved suitably so that he might recall in years hence, how he came by it.

Before leaving Terry promised to re-enlist as soon as he possibly could, and to return to China to umpire baseball again. He paid a nice tribute to local ball players and fans before he left. He had never seen a more fair and generous bunch of ball fans, he said than in Shanghai: It was a pleasure to umpire a game in this port. And Shanghai fans must join him in the hope that he will soon be with us again to decide whether it was a bawl or a stri-i-ike, or what.

Dame Fashion Revives Art Of Hand Embroidery

That the art of hand embroidery is again coming into its own is significant with the showing of the new Spring and Summer dresses. These two Jessco models, which were handmade by French peasant girls are striking examples of the latest creations. The one on the left still retains the straight lines, which were so prominent last year, yet with its kimono effect sleeves and deep-cut collar, reflects a distinctive individuality. The other is a charming frock of white voile with figured waist and accordion plaited panelled skirt, separated by hand embroidery, which makes a striking afternoon frock.

KEEN BUSINESS MEN Study their Appearance

All men know the value of a well-groomed, youthful appearance. Baldness, even in a young man, suggests neglect, and that the most useful years are past.

Baldness, or thin hair, suggests lessened vitality, lost energy, lack of reserve strength. Don't look like this. Restore your hair to its natural growth and vigor by using 'GERMOL.' It is a sound investment.

Dandruff is a common cause of falling, lifeless hair. 'GERMOL' removes dandruff in three days.

Don't neglect those early indications of baldness—Dandruff, Falling Hair, Scalp Iritation. Get a bottle of 'GERMOL' to-day and commence treatment.

All Chemists sell 'GERMOL.'

Westinghouse

ELECTRICAL APPARATUS FOR EVERY PURPOSE

The Modern Home

Modern ideas of cleanliness, beauty and convenience in the home have made electricity, the force that is molding industrial life, a powerful factor also in our houses.

The cheer of electric lighting in the home has paved the way for a far wider application of electric power in every-day life.

The fan has been cooling our houses on hot summer days for many years.

The iron has been perfected to make a hitherto unpleasant task agreeable, and assure fine results and protection to our garments.

The electric range makes kitchens cool and clean, saves fuel and improves the quality of our food. There are heaters, toasters, percolators, warming pads, and other invaluable additions to the modern home. Yet comparatively few people have really begun to use them. It is up to the progressive dealer in electrical supplies to take advantage of this opportunity and make it a golden one. If he will but show the housekeeper the incomparable advantages of electrical household appliances, he will establish a firm and growing trade.

To assure satisfaction to every purchaser the equipment should be Westinghouse. Every Westinghouse utensil is the product of a long development and rigid trials. No product is marketed by Westinghouse unless it has satisfied the highest requirements.

Write for our special offers.

FOUR STEAMERS IN PORT; NANKING TAKES U.S. MAIL

The China Mail liner Nanking arrived off Woosung last night from Hongkong, and is due to come up the river to dock at the China Merchants Lower Wharf this morning between 5 and 6 o'clock. The Nanking is bringing to Shanghai 31 cabin passengers and a small cargo and consignment of mail.

The Nanking is scheduled to leave port tomorrow at 4 p.m. for San Francisco via Yokohama and Honolulu. Seventy-six cabin passengers are booked out for the voyage. Mail for dispatch by the Nanking will close at the American postoffice at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow for ordinary and at 2:00 o'clock for registered.

The T.K.K. steamer Shinyo Maru arrived at Woosung yesterday afternoon from Nagasaki and San Francisco. Its tender reached the Customs Jetty at 7:30 p.m. The tender for outgoing passengers for Hongkong leaves the Jetty this morning at 10 a.m.

The steamer Kashima Maru, of the N.Y.K. line, is reported out of Nagasaki at 6:30 p.m., Sunday which should put it at the N. Y. K. lower buoy this morning at 7 to 8 o'clock. The Kashima leaves tomorrow morning for Hongkong and Manila.

The Kleist, another of the N.Y.K. boats from Hongkong enroute Yokohama is due at daylight this morning at the Shanghai Hongkew wharf. It sails tomorrow morning.

The China Mail reports the steamer China out of San Francisco Wednesday, June 22, with 430 tons of cargo for Shanghai. The China is due here July 16, and will be dispatched one day later for Hongkong and Singapore.

U.S. TRADE PLAN

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Youngstown, S. Dakota, June 22.—Investment of American capital and securities in foreign enterprises, enabling other nations to buy America's surplus manufactured materials, is the only solution of the problem of the serious excess of production, stated Mr. John S. Drum, of San Francisco, President of the American Bankers' Associaton.

Commencement At Hangchow

The annual commencement of the Junior College and Middle School of the Hangchow Christian College was completed Saturday at the college with the celebration of the graduation exercises. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by the Rev. Chen Ta-san Sunday, June 19, the receptions for the middle school and the junior college were held on Thursday and Friday.

The graduating exercises were held in the Tooker Memorial Chapel of the college. The program included the processional, a prayer, and scripture reading, followed by the opening remarks by president Stuart of the school.

After the presentation of prizes for meritorious school work, addresses were given in Chinese and in English by Messrs. M. Z. Dang, W. L. Yu, B. S. Tsang, D. W. Yu, and Van Ts-me.

COLLEGE NOTES

The second annual declamation contest was held in Tooker Memorial Chapel on June 17. Two members of the faculty and three foreign friends from the city acted as judges. The Middle School speakers were divided into two groups, prizes being offered for first and second place in each group. The college group included both junior and senior college speakers.

The following received prizes:

Middle School, 1-2—first, Nyi Cha-yao, second, Tong Dzen-k'ang.

Middle School, 3-4—first, Yu Dzen-wa, second, Wu Yu-ch'in.

College—first, Tse Ts'u-yin, second, Tsoh Yin-wun.

The gold medal, offered by the Peking branch of the alumni, for proficiency in English speaking, was awarded by the judges to Yu Dzen-wa for the best all-round appearance.

After the contest, in the evening, Rev. J. H. Arthur, of the Northern Presbyterian Mission, Hangchow, gave an illustrated lecture in Severance Hall on the subject of "North China."

Loh Vong-tsao, of the first year Senior College, won the prize for the best English original essay on the subject "How I can best serve the College."

Miss Nourse, formerly a teacher at Ginling College, Nanking, has recently returned from teaching in the Foreign School at Tengchow, near Peking. She is staying with her sister, Mrs. Robart, and her husband, the manager of the Standard Oil Co. here. They are temporarily occupying one of the college residences on College Hill.

Professor Walter E. Smith, who has been teaching English and Political Economy this year, left the Hill last week to go to Nanking to take up his duties as vice-consul in the American Consulate there.

Mr. Edward Evans, Jr., professor-elect of Physics, who, with his wife, has been in the Nanking Language School this year, visited College Hill for a day or two last week, before going to Mokanshan.

S. V. C. Orders

Routine Orders by Colonel R. Marr Johnson, C. M. G., D. S. O. Commandant S.V.C.

Shanghai, June 27, 1921.

No. 152.—Musketry Courses. The Commandant has just received detailed information of the British Army musketry courses for 1921, from which it appears that 'Bisley' targets replace the 2nd Class Elementary, and 1st and 2nd Class Figure targets, whilst 'disc' targets replace Figure targets in snap-shooting practices.

The S.V.C. will follow suit, and amended third and fourth pages of "Musketry Courses 1921-22" will be issued shortly. Pending this issue, both (rifle) musketry courses will be temporarily suspended.

No. 153.—Inter Company Challenge Shield. July 3, 1921. (i) Times of starting of teams were drawn on 25th inst. as under:

Japanese Company, 9.00 a.m.
"B" Co. British 9.20 a.m.
"A" Co. British 9.40 a.m.
Chinese Company 10.00 a.m.
Machine Gun Co. 10.20 a.m.
American Company 10.40 a.m.
Portuguese Company 11 a.m.
British Infantry Reserves 11.-20 a.m.

(ii) Teams will assemble by the times given above at the Rifle Range huts, where officers in charge of teams will receive written instructions for the competition from an officer of Corps Headquarters.

(iii) Dress will be Drill order. Points will be given for "turn-out."

(iv) Teams consist of one officer and 10 other ranks per unit. The officer acts as Fire Unit Commander but does not fire.

MONGOL ENVOY

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, June 26.—Prince Kalachin, director of the Bureau of Mongolian and Tibetian Affairs, will leave Peking shortly for Mongolia to attend a Mongolian Conference, which will be held to discuss matters in connection with the Mongolian Expedition.

Hunghutzes Raid North Manchuria

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, June 22.—The Hunghutzes infesting the line of the Chinese Eastern Railway are threatening the peace of North Manchuria, and terrorising the population. The military authorities are apparently unable to restore order.

A strong detachment of Hunghutzes recently attacked and took prisoners a commission of experts despatched by the railway to M. Popoff's timber concession near Imianpo. One of the members of the commission was allowed to proceed to Harbin with an order to collect $50,000. The Hunghutzes threatened to shoot the prisoners unless money were forthcoming.

At about the same time another strong band of Hunghutzes armed with machine-guns attacked M. Kovalsky's concession, also near Imianpo, on this occasion demanding a ransom of $500,000.

This morning the Railway Administration received a pathetic telegram from the hostages, declaring that the Hunghutzes had agreed to reduce the sum to $200,000, but would kill them all if the money were not paid within three days. A copy of this telegram has been sent to the Inter-Allied Technical Board, Chamber of Commerce, and owners of timber concessions.

Peru Has Plan To Develop Railways

(Reuter's Service)

New York, June 2 (by mail).—A report by the United States Commercial Attache at Lima, Peru, states than an ambitious scheme for development of Peru's railway system is under consideration by the Peruvian Government. It includes the building of two north-and-south lines and one or more railways connecting the western coast with the navigable rivers on the eastern frontier.

There are now approximately 1,700 miles of railways in operation in the country, 1,300 miles of which are said to be controlled by the Peruvian Corporation, a British concern.

Engineering difficulties and the almost prohibitive cost of construction have been directly responsible in the past for the slowness with which railway construction has been pushed in the river valleys of Peru, the report states.

Four S. American Urged To Buy Up Packing Concerns

(Reuter's Service)

New York, June 2 (by mail).—According to advices from Montevideo, Uruguay, a proposal that the Governments of Uruguay, Argentina, Brazil and Paraguay take over by expropriation the packing houses in those countries has been made by a committee of the Uruguayan House of Representatives.

Most of the packing houses in those countries are controlled by foreign capital, a large part of which is North-American. It is estimated that the total cost of such an undertaking would be over $100,000,000 and that the cost in Uruguay alone would be $22,000,000.

The committee recommended that a convention of delegates of the four South American countries be held to arrange joint action and suggested the issuance of domestic and foreign loans to raise the funds necessary to acquire the packing houses.

It is proposed by the committee that the establishments be placed under the control of directors comprising cattle men and government officials in the respective countries. Another directorate would be formed of government representatives, who would control the marketing of the products abroad and fix prices, acting jointly in all of the four nations.

TROOPS MOVING

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, June 25.—A telegram from Changsha reports that 20,000 Hunan troops from Changsha and Changteh are moving towards the Hupeh frontier, with the object of attacking General Wang Chan-yuan.

According to a report received in Peking from Hankow, a mutiny occurred at Fuchikou on the night of the 19th instant. An officer was shot, but there was no looting.

25 Die In Rail Wreck In France

(Reuter's Service)

Lille, June 26.—Twenty-five persons were killed and 62 injured when the Lille-Paris Express was derailed at Beaumont Hamel. The accident was due to the luggage-van leaving the rails and upsetting two other coaches.

Clever Shoplifter Gets Three Years

A Chinese shoplifter who operated with notable success an ingenious variant of the old "green goods" flim-flam had a three-year hiatus injected into his career by the Mixed Court yesterday.

The defendant stated that he was previously a member of the army in Anhwei but had resigned. Detective Sergeant Balchin sketched the case to the court. The shoplifter had first provided himself with a comprehensive and plausible looking collection of cheap jewelry, including rings, wrist-watches, brooches, pins etc. He would enter a jeweler's and ask to be shown certain stock and would substitute a piece of the brassware for some valuable article which corresponded to it in appearance. And the dealers never found out that they had been bilked until the police started tracing back the pawn tickets found in the prisoner's possession. He was caught when he transferred his activities to the foreign shops and tried to carry off a wristwatch at Whiteaway, Laidlaw's, Jeweler's at 142 Foochow Road, 194 Foochow Road, 491 Honan Road and 175 Seward Road were among the victims, and the police have recovered from pawn quite a quantity of jewelry for which no owners have as yet been found.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy and retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse. It causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."
J. E. SIMPSON, M. D., Chicago, Ill.

"Castoria is good for children and I frequently prescribe it, and always obtain the desired result."
F. GERALD BLATTNER, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

"A medicine so valuable and beneficial for children as your Castoria is deserves the highest praise. I find it in use everywhere."
J. S. ALEXANDER, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"I have prescribed Castoria to families for several years. It is all right. Mothers like it, for children will take it without any trouble."
C. A. WILSON, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"Have used your Castoria on various occasions in suitable cases and have found it a palatable and efficient laxative, especially in the various diseases of childhood."
CHAS. EDWARD GARDINER, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children."
J. A. BEARMAN, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

FRENCH AT HOME IN DUESSELDORF

Soldiers Wander Freely Through The Streets, Officers Thrive In Hotels

CITY IS MORE CHEERFUL

Movement Carried Out As Planned—Reserves To Stay A Few Weeks

BY T. WALTER WILLIAMS

Duesseldorf, May 14.—The signing of the reparations agreement was a great relief to the people of the Ruhr district, who had almost given up hope and were prepared to see hordes of French soldiers take possession of their cities. The most pessimistic people were the workmen in Essen, who did not believe the Government in Berlin intended to sign until the act was accomplished. The general opinion of the workmen in the Ruhr, as voiced at their meetings, was that Germany should find out exactly what she had to pay so that she could go ahead at once to do it. It was apparent that Germany had lost the war and that France could do as she liked in forcing the payment of indemnities. No help could be expected from America, they said.

Duesseldorf is not only the finest commercial city in Europe, with its broad streets, shaded with trees, spacious parks, gardens and handsome buildings, but it is also an important art center. Its inhabitants take pride in their city and in keeping its streets clean. The stranger looks in vain for pieces of paper or orange peel strewn on the roadway or sidewalks.

Since daylight on Wednesday trains have been arriving from Paris crowded with French soldiers adding to the number already in the city. The men, in their blue-gray uniforms, sat in open box cars with an air of keen enjoyment. The French soldier hates to travel in an ordinary passenger coach.

A SIGHT FOR GERMAN COMMUTERS

Germans commuting into Duesseldorf kept heir eyes fixed on the troop trains as they rolled along steadily at ten miles an hour. Many drew in their breath and ejaculated "Gott in Himmel!" between set teeth. The appearance of the French soldiers in such numbers fascinated them. The trains were very long and were composed of box cars for men and horses, supply wagons, ambulances and motor lorries mounted on flatcars. Each train carried about 500 soldiers, and on arrival at the main station they were sent to various depots in nearby towns and villages, as there was no room in Duesseldorf.

Fifty officers arrived with the first of the troop trains and went to the Park Hotel, where three floors had been reserved for them. I knew they had arrived because on my return to the hotel from a quick trip to Cologne to see the British Commandant I found my baggage had been removed from a small room I had on the first floor to a still smaller room on the fourth. The landlord explained that one of the French officers had asked for the first floor room and to avoid any discussion he had given it to him.

During the afternoon all kinds of beautiful flowers and plants in pots were brought into the hotel to decorate the suite that was to be occupied by the French General, Degoutte. Many of the French officers who arrived with the first contingent weeks ago have their wives with them, stopping in the hotel, and look as if they had come to stay.

Captain Suchon, the Anglo-French liaison officer, said the troops would continue to arrive in Duesseldorff according to the concentration plan drawn up by the Army Board in Paris. It could not be changed because the Germans had accepted the agreement on Wednesday, as that would only cause confusion. By the time the last train reached here would be 80,000 troops on the outskirts of the Ruhr district, including 9,000 Belgians located in Crefeld. He said the French soldiers had been lodged in empty factories, warehouses, schoolrooms and all kinds of buildings, and the majority were sleeping on hard floors. Captain Suchon added the men could not endure this kind of rough living except in time of war for more than three months at the outside, because it would affect their health. If nothing occurred to render their further stay necessary, it was probable that the reserves would commence to return to France to be demobilised toward the end of July.

THE FRENCH WELL TREATED

The French General arrived at noon today with his staff and took up his quarters in the Park Hotel, which is opposite General Headquarters, on the other side of the Gardens. Bright sunshine has cheered the people up. French soldiers walk about the city admiring the fine streets and stores and conduct themselves in an orderly manner, and are not interfered with in any way by the population. There are very many other cities outside of Germany where forces of a late enemy could not walk about freely and mingle with the inhabitants as the French troops do here without arousing any resentment on the part of the inhabitants.

French camions, filled with soldiers, and supply wagons drive about in all directions. Their destinations are all marked on small plans, and a soldier sits behind the driver to direct him which turning to take. No accidents have occurred. Automobiles and motor lorries drive as fast in Germany as they do in American cities, but somehow the drivers do not kill any pedestrians. Perhaps it is because they get long jail sentences upon conviction in the police courts and lose their licenses.

The occupation of Crefeld by 9,000 Belgians has not made any difference so far in the output of the silk and textile mills, and the soldiers get along very well with the Germans, as many of them can speak the language. There is not the same hatred between them as there is between France and Germany. The landlord of the Park Hotel is losing an average of 6,500 marks a day through the French officers stopping there. They pay for their meals 13 marks and demand five courses with coffee. The ordinary guests pay 35 marks for a dinner of three courses without coffee. The city pays 6 marks for rooms each night, while the regular price of rooms in the Park Hotel ranges from 68 to 120 marks. No civilians are allowed in the restaurant, except foreign press correspondents.

Peking-Suaiyuan Rail Strike Ended

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, June 24.—It is semi-officially reported that the strike of firemen on the Peking-Suaiyuan Railway has been settled. The cause of the strike was dissatisfaction amongst the firemen because drivers from outside were brought in by the Railway Administration to cope with the accumulated grain stocks at Fengchen and other stations on the line, the transport of which necessitated the use of more locomotives. The rule on the railway is that every driver shall be promoted from the ranks of the firemen, and the firemen considered that these new men were hindering their promotion.

The firemen actually struck on the question of an increase of pay. The Administration states that had the men submitted a written demand to the railway management, which they omitted to do, they would have received assurance of satisfaction as the Administration had already been considering the question of increasing the wages of its employees before this trouble started.

JAPAN'S PRINCE

(Reuter's Service)

London, June 26.—It is understood that the possibility of the Prince of Wales accepting Crown Prince Hirohito's invitation to visit Tokio is at present being considered in view of the favorable opportunity presented for the Prince of Wales, on his visit to India next November, to extend the tour to Japan.

Verdun, June 25.—The Crown Prince of Japan took a motor tour today, and placed wreaths on soldiers' graves, afterwards returning to Paris.

NOTICE TO MOTOR OWNERS

Official notice is given to motor car owners in the current issue of the Municipal Gazette that 900 cars have not yet been weighed as required in connection with the new method of issuing licenses. It is announced that on and after July 1 a fee will be charged for the use of the weighbridge.

HONOR FOR CRANE

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, June 25.—A Chihling mandate confers a Tablet of Honor on Mr. Charles R. Crane, the retiring American Minister, and the First Class of the Golden Charity Order on Mrs. Crane.

(Dalta News Agency)

Peking, June 27.—Former United States Minister Crane arrived at Manchuli station, Manchuria, on June 24. He was met at the depot by the Chinese authorities, members of the Interallied Technical Board, and representatives of the Far Eastern Republic. At a banquet given by the chief commanding the garrison glasses were raised in response to a toast, "to the Friendship of China, America, and Russia." Minister Crane stated that he was pleased with his cordial reception, and expressed the hope that his journey through Siberia and Russia would be as pleasant.

Minister Crane left for the Transbaikal in a special car furnished by the Far Eastern Republic accompanied by a special representative who met him at Manchuli.

Tebong Estate Decides On Reorganisation Plan

At an extraordinary general meeting of the Tebong Rubber and Tapioca Estate Ltd., which followed the thirteenth annual general meeting of shareholders of the company yesterday, authorisation was given to proceed with a scheme of reorganisation. The directors present at the meeting were Messrs. A. W. Welch, Chairman, H. M. Tibbey, Chu Pao-san and Secretary, Mr. C. J. L. Stewart. At the annual general meeting 10,064 shares were represented and at the extraordinary meeting 24,160.

At the annual general meeting three resolutions adopted were as follows:

That the directors' report and statement of accounts as presented be passed. Proposed by the chairman, seconded by Mr. H. M. Tibbey.

That Mr. R. Macgregor be re-elected a director of the company. Proposed by Mr. A. E. Stewart, seconded by Mr. R. S. F. McBain.

That Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews be elected auditors to the company in Malacca and Shanghai for the ensuing year. Proposed by Mr. Walter W. Houfe, seconded by Mr. A. E. Stewart.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

The Chairman's address was as follows:

Gentlemen, the report and accounts have been in your hands for some days and with your permission I propose to follow the usual procedure and to take them as read, but before doing so I must—speaking for the moment in my capacity as representative of the firm of Secretaries—apologise for a careless mistake that appears on page 3 of the report. I refer to the remarks under the heading of Profit & Loss Account where it states that the loss on the year's working is Taels 11,936,-18, this figure should of course be Taels 7,936,18. The difference between these two figures is the amount of the directors' fees and the mistake arose through the figure in the body of the draft report not having been altered when the directors decided to forego their fees.

With these few words you will no doubt agree to take the report as read.

AUDITORS' REPORT

According to law I must read the auditors' report which is as follows:

We have obtained all the information and explanations we have required. We are informed that at the time the interim dividend was declared the estimated profits accrued were more than sufficient to cover the amount distributed; at the end of the year the balance to the credit of Profit and Loss Account proved insufficient to provide the amount distributed as interim dividend part of which has been, consequently, paid out of capital; the company's legal advisers, however, are of opinion that under the circumstances such payment was proper and legal and that no personal liability attaches to the directors. Subject to the foregoing, the above balance sheet, which is in accordance with the books, accounts and vouchers in Shanghai, and the audited accounts received from the Malacca Agents, is, in our opinion, properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the company's affairs according to the best of our information and the explanations given us and as shown by the books.

Shanghai, 20 May, 1921.

Lowe, Bingham & Matthews, Auditors.

In their report your directors have endeavored to give you the fullest information regarding the working of your property, which leaves comparatively little for me to say.

You were told last year that a site at the entrance to the estate had been leased at a nominal rental to the medical board for the erection of a bungalow for the district medical officer. On the advice of the visiting agent and the manager your directors decided to plant the remainder of the lot in question, some 7 acres in extent, with Hevea, this will have the effect of improving the surroundings of the doctor's bungalow and the rubber when mature will prove a valuable addition to the planted area. No other extensions were made during the year neither do your directors contemplate making any further additions to the planted area which now stands at 3,575 acres, of which 2,161 acres are actually in tapping and a further 266 acres are ready to be brought into the rounds as soon as conditions warrant.

The planted areas, both mature and immature, were reported to be generally in first class order at the end of the year; there were a few places where sparce lallang was evident but it was being attended to at the time the report was made and has no doubt all been removed by this time.

Thinning out was continued during the year with very beneficial results to the remaining trees, the cost however was extremely high, about 35 cents per tree, due to the fact that the bulk of the work was done by Chinese on contract during the early months of the year when labor was scarce and wages high. This work is still being continued by selection, only the worst yielding tress being removed and I am pleased to be able to tell you that the cost for April had been reduced to 15 cents per tree.

OTHER DETAILS

Various pests and diseases gave rather more trouble than during the previous year, but this important branch of estate work is having every attention and any cases of disease that appear receive prompt treatment.

The output for the year was 813,540 lbs. or 186,460 lbs. less than the estimate and 131,460 lbs. below the harvest for last year. The heavy drought experienced during the second half of the year affected the output somewhat but the main cause of the shortage was the adoption of alternate day tapping during the closing months of the year.

The inauguration of this system had the immediate effect of cutting the output in half but it has the advantage of being much more economical and your directors are advised will probably lead to a better yield per acre over a term of years than could be obtained fr m daily tapping.

Simultaneously with the starting of alternate day tapping the labor force was reduced by nearly 300 coolies, the services of practically all the Chinese being dispensed with, and the cheaper and more tractable Tamils being retained. The present force of 573 coolies is said to be sufficient for the immediate needs of the estate.

It is useless for me to give you an estimate of the probable crop for the current year as it is possible that if the present depression continues further drastic restriction of output will be forced upon all estates.

Health conditions during the year can only be said to have been fair, there having been a good deal of malaria amongst both the staff and the labor force.

Mr. McKenzie, the manager, was absent during the greater part of the year on a well earned holiday and in his absence the conduct of the affairs on the estate was in the hands of Mr. McCrow, the first assistant. Your thanks are due to this gentleman and to the other members of the staff for the very efficient manner in which they carried out their duties during a very trying period.

I extremely regret that owing to a shortage of funds brought about by the extraordinary crisis through which we are passing we have had for the sake of economy to dispense with the services of several members of the staff. Some of them I am pleased to say have found other employment and I am sure you will join with me in wishing them success in their new appointments.

COSTS HIGHER

The cost of production you will notice is 3.18 pence higher than it was last year. A large part of this increase in cost is due to the much smaller crop that the overhead expenses such as general expenditure and the upkeep of the gardens had to be divided over. In addition to which certain specific items helped to swell the total.

The loss on rice was extremely heavy, amounting to no less than $.$16,313.90, of which $5,457.68 appears under this heading in the accounts and the remainder, representing the loss incurred after July 1, 1920, has been charged direct to the various field works on which the labor was employed.

I am glad to say that this heavy toll on the company's resources is now practically at an end.

Management expenses were much higher owing to the increase in the number of Europeans employed and to the manager's absence on leave; the staff as I have already told you has since been materially reduced.

Medical expenses were practically double chiefly owing to the high assessment for the 1st year of the Malacca medical scheme due to the large number of items of capital expenditure that the medical board had to provide for. The assessment for the current year has been materially reduced. The estate cost for the three months ended April 30, 1921, is 11s. 21d. and the cost for April alone 9.91 pence.

Turning now to the accounts, I will deal with the working account first. This has been debited with 90 percent of the general expenditure and with the whole of the Shanghai office expenses. The unsold stock of rubber has been valued for the purposes of the accounts at a trifle over 23 Straits cents per pound, whether the stock when all sold will realise more or less than this figure is impossible to say at the moment.

Last year's stock of rubber realised Taels 24,481.87 more than the value placed upon it in the accounts but this profit is almost offset by a loss in exchange amounting to Taels 21,753.81.

This large difference in exchange arises from the fact that on the 31st January, 1920, the company had £18,119: 5:10 in London which was taken into the accounts at Taels 49,327.61 whereas at the end of the year under review the company owed London £13,710: 2: 8. which at 3/6 equal Tls. 78,343.62.

You may wonder how this large sum came to be owing in London and I will endeavor to explain to the best of my ability. At the end of last year there were drafts against shipments that had not yet matured to the extent of £12,000 and during the year under review further drafts were drawn to the extent of £39,550, the proceeds of which were used to finance the running of the estate. Towards the end of 1920 owing to the congestion at the docks in London and the increasing depression in the rubber market, which made it difficult to sell except in small quantities, the drafts began to mature before the rubber could be taken delivery of and sold.

The secretaries therefore retired the drafts as they fell due out of their own funds with the result that at the end of the year the company was in their debt to the extent of £13,710: 2: 8. Against this there is a stock of 221,100 lbs. of rubber in London, the proceeds of which when sold will materially reduce this debit, but I am afraid will not be sufficient to wipe it out altogether.

FOREGO FEES

The items in the profit and loss account are quite usual except that you will notice that the directors have decided to forego their fees for the year. In this connection I must point out to you that the present crisis has increased the worries and responsibilities of the directors of rubber companies most enormously but this company, being in financial straits, and every cent that could be saved being of the utmost value, your directors decided that in order to endeavor to keep the company alive and thus preserve the very valuable estate for you they would forego their fees.

Turning to the balance sheet the capital expenditure has been fully explained in the report so I will not enlarge upon it. For the current year, apart from the cost of upkeeping the immature area there will be practically no capital expediture.

You will have seen from the auditors' report that by paying the interim dividend of Taels 0.50 per share last July the directors have in effect distributed more in dividend than there were profits available at the end of the year and I will endeavor to explain to you how this state of affairs came about.

You will remember that the company carried forward from last year undistributed profits to the extent of Taels 32,217.16 and in the middle of July, 1920, your directors found themselves in the position of having £6,000 in cash in London and Taels 29,061.82 in the Bank in Shanghai. Exchange at that time was about 5/2 and rubber 73 cents per pound. An estimate of the profits to date was made and it was calculated that the profits for the first 6 months of the year would be well over Taels 35,000; this added to the sum carried forward from the previous year would have provided say Taels 67,000 against a sum of Taels 36,633.50 required to pay the interim dividend. This estimate was confirmed later on when proforma accounts for the 6 months ended 31st July were prepared and disclosed a profit of Taels 41,019.

Your directors, not having any reason to anticipate the appalling crash that has since taken place in the rubber market, therefore decided to declare an interim dividend which was paid on July 30, 1920.

When the final accounts came to be made up, exchange had dropped to 3-6 causing a large loss in exchange and it was not considered safe to value the unsold stock of rubber at more than 23 cents per pound. Thus what looked in July like being a very prosperous year for the company actually turned out at the end of the year to have been a most unfortunate one.

I have dealt with this matter at some length because I do not want you to go away with the idea that your directors were reckless and did not exercise proper care before venturing on the payment of the interim dividend. On the contrary all available data was carefully examined before this action was decided upon and it is due to factors entirely beyond their control that the final results for the year show them to have been mistaken.

In conclusion I will refer briefly to the reconstruction scheme that is to be put before you at the extraordinary meeting that is to be held this afternoon immediately after this meeting.

At a cursory glance the financial position as disclosed by the balance sheet would appear to be much worse than is actually the case. If you will look at the liabilities side you will see that the cash liabilities, that is, suspense account, sundry creditors, unclaimed dividends, London Agents and bank overdraft total Taels 114,-061.75 and on the other side the liquid assets, that is stores, etc., sundry debtors, cash in bank and rubber stock amount to Taels 95,-765.19, so that the liabilities exceed the cash assets by Taels 18,896.56. This figure may be either increased or decreased according to whether the unsold stock of rubber realises more or less than the value placed upon it in the accounts.

This is not a very serious state of affairs as far as it goes, but as a large part of the liquid assets is represented by the unsold stock of rubber and the company is badly in need of further liquid funds for the carrying on of its business, your directors have, after very mature consideration, come to the conclusion that the best way of preserving this very valuable property until better times return is to ask for your approval to a reconstruction of the company.

OUTLINES PLANS

The scheme they have worked out is, I think you will agree, an eminently fair one. You will each receive 8 shares of one Tael each for every £1 share at present held, this is somewhat in excess of the present market value of the shares, in addition you will be asked to pay for one share of one Tael for every £1 share at present held These additional shares are being issued for the purpose of providing the necessary working capital and I urge you one and all to do your bit in helping the company through its present troubles by paying for the quota of shares to which you are severally entitled.

The capital of the new company has been fixed at Taels 750,000 of which Taels 586,136 will be issued to you in exchange for your old shares and you will be asked to pay for Taels 73,267 worth of shares. If these are all taken up the issued capital of the new company will be Taels 659,403 leaving for issuue at a later date, if necessary, Taels 90,597.

The capital it is at present proposed to issue is equivalent to Taels 184½ per planted acre or say at present Exchange £30, so that assuming an average output per acre of 300 lbs. of rubber and a profit of only 4 pence per pound, the profit per acre would be £5 which is sufficient to pay the debenture interest and leave a profit of over £4 per acre for the benefit of the shareholders.

From these figures you will see what a very sound proposition Tebong really is, and I have no hesitation in asking you to support your directors in their efforts to preserve the estate by taking up every share that you are entitled to apply for.

That is all I have to say, gentlemen. I am sorry to have had to make you listen to such a long speech but the fate of the company is now trembling in the balance and I have felt it incumbent upon me to give you as much information as possible.

If there is any point that I have not made clear or any questions you would like to ask I shall be pleased to answer you to the best of my ability.

SECOND MEETING

The Chairman's address at the Extraordinary Meeting was as follows:

Gentlemen: As you were all present at the annual general meeting that has just concluded I will not weary you by going over the ground again.

Your directors in working out the reconstruction scheme have been specially careful not to propose anything that would in any way effect the value of the shares as they stand at present. You will receive 8 shares of one Tael each for every £1 share at present held, that is the same as converting your sterling into Taels at an exchange of 2-6. You will be asked to pay to the new company one Tael for every share that you now hold, in exchange for which payment you will receive a further one Tael share.

I hope you will all do your very utmost to take up these extra shares as the company needs the money badly, and it is better for them and thus preserve your whole rights in the estate rather than that they should be sold to outsiders who have no present stake in the company. But, should it so happen that for some reason or another you are unable to apply for the whole quantity to which you are entitled, then I want you to clearly understand that you do not lose your entire rights to apply, you can take up just as many of the shares as you wish to up to the maximum to which you are entitled. What I mean is that if you are entitled to take up 100 shares but only want to take up 50 you are perfectly at liberty to do so, and I hope you will.

The resolutions are now open to discussion and I shall be pleased to answer any questions you may wish to ask.

THE RESOLUTIONS

1.—That it is desirable to reconstruct the company and accordingly that the company be wound up voluntarily and that Arthur Joseph Welch be and he is hereby appointed liquidator for the purposes o such winding up. Proposed by the chairman, and seconded by Mr. H. M. Tibbey.

2.—That the said liquidator be and he is hereby authorised to consent to the registration of a new company to be named "The Tebong Rubber Estate, Limited," with a memorandum and articles of association which have already been prepared with the privity and approval of the directors of this company. Proposed by the chairman and seconded by Mr. H. M. Tibbey.

3.—That the draft agreement submitted to this meeting and expressed to be made between the company and its liquidator of the first part, The Tebong Rubber Estate, Limited, of the second part and Harry Martin Little and Roderick George Macdonald as trustees for the debenture holders of this company of the third part be and the same is hereby approved and that the said liquidator be and he is hereby authorised pursuant to Section 185 of the companies ordinance of Hongkong 1911, to enter into an agreement with such new company (when incorporated) in the terms of the said draft and to carry the same into effect with such (if any) modifications as he thinks expedient. Proposed by the chairman and seconded by Mr. H. M. Tibbey.

CHINESE POST OFFICE
NOTIFICATION NO. 505.

AIR MAIL SERVICE.

The public is informed that arrangements have been made with the Aeronautical Department at Peking for the carriage by aerial service, of all categories of mail articles including parcels between Peking and Shanghai.

The Service is expected to commence on the 1st July. One aeroplane will leave Peking at 5 p.m. every Wednesday, Friday and Sunday and leave Tsinan at 10.30 a.m. every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

For the present the aerial Service will operate between Peking and Tsinan only but mails will be accepted for other places for transmission over the part of this line by air, and to destination by the usual means of transmission.

Mail matter intended for transmission by ordinary service to Tsinan, aerial service to Peking, and by ordinary service beyond Peking must be handed in at the Post Office not later than 8.30 a.m. on the day of despatch; parcels before 5 p.m. the previous day—(i.e. Shanghai Post Office will close on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays). Mails so posted are expected to reach Peking 10 hours ahead of the train leaving Tsinan at the same time as the aeroplane. Such mails must be franked with the special aerial stamps provided for that purpose, in addition to the usual Tariff rate of postage for ordinary and registered mails as the case may be as indicated hereunder:

SPECIAL AIR TARIFF

The special air tariff leviable on letters, postcards, other articles, and parcels, in addition to the postal rate, is provisionally fixed as follows:

- Letters 15-cents per unit of 20 grammes or fraction thereof.
- Postcards 15-cents single.
- Postcards 30-cents double.
- Other articles 15-cents per unit of 50 grammes or fraction thereof.
- Parcels up to 1 kilo 60-cents.
- Each succeeding kilo up to 10 kilos 30-cents.

The special aerial stamp may not be used to prepay postage on mail articles transmitted in the ordinary way. Such mail matter will be treated as insufficiently prepaid mail matter and will be taxed double the deficiency.

Mails forwarded by aerial service are subject to the regulations governing mails transmitted by ordinary service as regards weight, dimensions and indemnity.

The Post Office is not responsible should mail matter and parcels posted by aerial transmission subsequently have to be sent by rail owing to bad weather, damage to flying machines or other unexpected causes beyond the control of the Post Office. In such cases, the aerial rates already paid are not refundable.

Insured mails and parcels will not be accepted for aerial transmission.

Postal Commissioner.

Conseil D'Administration Municipale De La Concession Francaise de Changhai

MUNICIPAL LOAN OF 1921

(20,000 debentures of Tls. 100 each).

Rate of interest 8% per annum

The "Conseil d'Administration Municipale de la Concession Francaise de Changhai" hereby invite subscriptions for 20,000 debentures of Tls. 100 each, according to the resolution passed at their General Meeting on May 30, 1921.

The conditions on which the Debenture Certificates will be issued are:—

1°—The Debenture Certificates are transferable, and the person whose name is entered in the Register of Debenture Certificate or Certificates, shall alone be recognised and treated by the Council as the lawful and rightful holder and owner of such Debenture Certificate or Certificates.

2°—The loan will be redeemable at par (Tls. 100) in not less than 10 years and not more than 30 years, from 1st July 1921 and according to the figures determinated by the Council.

3°—The loan will bear interest at 8% per annum, payable on the 30th day of June and 31st of December in each year, when interest warrants will be issued to the registered owners.

4°—The property and income of the Municipality, deducting those which serve as security provided in the Municipal Loans of 1903, 1911, 1914 and 1916 are the security for the repayment of the money advanced and for the interest thereon in the present loan.

The Members of the French Municipal Council are not personally liable in any way for the payment of either principal or interests.

5°—The Debenture Certificates will be issued and bear interest from 1st July 1921.

6°—Applications for debentures will be received at the Secretary's Office, Rue du Consulat, from June 20 next.

A chequee representing the amount of debentures asked for and payable on June 30th must be deposited at the same time.

7°—Applications for Debentures under par will not be recognised by the Council.

8°—For further informations, apply to Mr. P. LEGENDRE, Secretary, French Municipal Council.

Shanghai, 31st May 1921.

Spot bar silver was up 1/4d. and forward 1/8d. in London on Saturday. The New York price advanced to 58⅝ cents and the London-New York cross rate to 374.

The official rates here today were unchanged from Saturday.

Our market here opened steady with sellers of Sterling at 3/6¼ and of Gold Dollars at 66. During the day rates firmed up, banks and speculators being inclined to sell. Business at the close was done in Sterling as high as 3/6⅜ for near and 3/6⅝ for forward and in Gold Dollars at 66½.

Our local money market still remains firm and is likely to continue so until substantial arrivals of silver are received from abroad.

India bought silver in London on Saturday for shipment and the market there seems quite steady although there is always a possibility of the Continent becoming a substantial seller.

Singapore Rubber Auction

Singapore, June 15, 1921.

Following were the prices realised at our auction this week:

SHEET	Singapore per lb.
Awarded Standard Ribbed	22½
Equal to Standard Ribbed	22½/21½
Off Quality Ribbed	21½/12
Smoked Fine Plain	Nil
Smoked Good Plain	Nil
Unsmoked Fine Ribbed	Nil
Unsmoked Good Ribbed	Nil
Unsmoked Fine Plain	Nil
Unsmoked Good Plain	Nil
Cupwashing	9/6½
CREPE
Awarded Standard 1st Latex	Nil
Equal to Standard 1st Latex	26½/26
Off Colour Latex	25½/16
Fine Brown	17½/14
Good Brown	13½/9½
Good Dark	12½/7½
Barky	10/4
SCRAP
Virgin and Pressed	Nil
Loose	Nil

Catalogued for sale—1,793,110 lbs. (about 800 tons).

Offered—1,463,864 lbs (about 654 tons).

Sold—1,040,437 lbs. (about 464 tons).

The London market has improved by a farthing since our last report, probably due to the possibility of an early settlement of the coal strike, but New York remains dull with only few inquiries.

There was a moderate demand at slightly lower prices at the local auctions this week.

Awarded Standard Sheet sold at 22½ cents in the morning. Later in the day only 22 cents was bid, but nothing sold.

Sheet equal to Standard sold from 22½ to 21½ cents throughout the day. Off Qaulity Sheet was fairly steady, with exception of the very lowest grades.

Crepe equal to Standard fetched from 26½ to 26 cents, and the better grades of Off Colour Latex were in good demand round 25½ to 23 cents.

The top-prices show a decline on the week of 1 cent for Standard Sheet and ½ cent for Standard Crepe.

Brown, Dark and Barky Crepes were on an average 1 cent down on the week.

N.B.—The above prices for Standard Quality Sheet and Crepe are only paid for small lots at the auctions, whereas bigger quantities in the outside market generally fetch from 1 cent to 1½ above these figures.

The Pursuit Of Happiness

(San Francisco Chronicle)

WHETHER the youth of the day will confess it or not, its main motive in life, for the moment at all events, is to have "a good time." Thus has the lighter side of the Epicurean philosophy asserted itself after 2,000 years, during which the Christian ideal of altruism has been struggling for supremacy. It is curious to note that the Horatian motto, "Carpe diem," which may be liberally translated as "Have a good time," is emphasised by the youth of the twentieth century.

The pursuit of happiness or pleasure is a thoroughly laudable desire. As every child of the Nation should know, the pursuit of happiness is aligned with life and liberty as "a certain inalienable right" in the Declaration of Independence—a God-given right, which the Fathers sought to guarantee to American citizens by the Constitution of the United States. It is indeed the most natural ambition among the sons of Adam and the daughters of Eve, but neither the wisdom of the Fathers nor the laws of their successors can insure happiness either for the Nation or its citizens. Happiness springs from the soul of the individual and is dependent upon the individual's intent and action.

But it must be admitted that except in few and delightful instances the modern generation looks beyond the home for its happiness. Is it not because the fever of the age has incited the idea that pleasure is best found in figuring in the multitude, and that excitement is too often mistaken for happiness? The pregnant evil of the age is found in this craze for excitement, to the banishment of the pleasures of peaceful habits, to the constant desire for the titillation of the senses by bright lights and feverish music. In such performances the intellect must be checked at the gates of the house of mirth, and the emotions of the moment alone are catered to. Experience soon enough reveals that this excitement, if too often indulged in, cannot reap happiness. It is sought as an anodyne for the cares and the ennui of the day, and if oblivion be happiness, then only it is sometimes attained either in dance hall or movie palace. Curiosity concerning the neighbors of the human herd and the individual's love of admiration are also impelling motives, but the young are preparing for themselves an unhappy old age if they monopolise their energies to such pursuits without cultivating their minds and developing their love of wisdom and reason.

It is a joyous experience to observe the amount of real happiness that is experienced every Sunday by the thousands of young men and maidens who hike over the hills, gather strength and refreshment from their exercise and learn true wisdom from their commune with nature. It is also encouraging to watch the happiness of thousands of people who seek and find true happiness in the public parks, who have a real sense for beauty and appreciate good music; nor will the pessimist find any argument if he is a constant visitor to the public libraries, where every evening he will find all sort of conditions of men, women and children reaping true happiness from the written word.

If the spirit of the age appears to be frivolous and its practice too often confounds happiness with excitement, it should be realised that the signs and the symptoms are usually superficial. They are much in evidence because one need not go out of one's way to be confronted with them. On the other hand, while this confusion can only be a fugitive experience, there is plenty of evidence, though not so obvious, that the majority still find the best and truest happiness in things that are worth while—the cultivation of the soul and the desire to make others happy. The happiest individual in your acquaintance is certain to be the man or the woman who is comparatively careless of selfish pleasure, but who seeks and finds the supreme pleasure in contriving the happiness of others.

Correspondence

GINLING LEADS

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Dear Sir.—It seems worth while for the sake of accuracy to correct the statement in Friday's paper in the report of your Canton correspondent that the young woman graduating in the class of three at Canton Christian College is the first to receive the A.B. degree in China. Two years ago the first class was graduated at Ginling College, Nanking, China and five young women received their degree from the Regents of the University of the State of New York, under which both Canton and Ginling are incorporated. In 1920 seven young women were recommended for the degree and this year nine more, making the Ginling total twenty-one.

The Ginling degree admits students to post-graduate work in American colleges. One of this year's graduates is going to Smith. One of the first class is studying medicine at Michigan. The young women who have remained in China have held important positions in Government and Mission schools and are very much in demand—a demand far in advance of the supply. The course of study at Ginling offers a training equivalent to that given in an American college with the added advantage of the opportunity to continue the study of Chinese and to keep in touch with Chinese problems related to the studies of the curriculum, which are adapted to meet the special needs of the students.

I shall be very glad if you can give the above information about Ginling to your readers. Yours very sincerely,

Matilda C. Thurston,
President.

OUR TYRANNICAL LAUNDRIES

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Dear Sir.—Apropos a recent advertisement from the new washing guild it does seem as if the residents, some of us at least, are in for a hot time unless we conform to the Guild's requirements. It was rather difficult to understand what was really meant though I gathered certain points which if put into effect will mean that a few of the laundries will lose their customers. Objections are certain to be raised against resolutions 1, 2 and 10 as well as that part where it is fervidly desired "to protect our business from interference by the S.M.C. Health Department."

Most of us are aware of the old methods of "damping down" when the washerman sprinkles the clothes preparatory to ironing. For the benefit of those who have not heard of this delightful time-saver it consists of filling the mouth with water, more often dirty than not, then blowing it over the clothes in squirter fashion together with such morsels of fermented food as have remained in the worker's mouth from his last or previous meals. The writer has frequently listened to the worries of a local health inspector who had a share in trying to impart modern hygienic methods and ideas to unwilling washermen, ice cream men and other plutocrats of the Settlement. From his remarks I can quite understand that the guild would prefer to have less supervision which would certainly give the members a much easier time.

The Guild states in para. 1 that "Every laundry-master should report to the Guild with full address of his foreign patrons written on a special book. After receiving his report the Guild should send man to investigate whether the fixed laundry charges are contracted by monthly or each suit counting." There will be a certain amount of difficulty in getting such information and I wonder if the Guild's representative will show that tenacity and ability to make himself a general nuisance as the average shroff of Shanghai.

In para. 2 it is stated that "if disapproval of the former apply (referring to the increase in charges) stop monthly laundry service after the patrons bill fully paid. At every laundry being prohibited to take the monthly laundry service until getting assurance; other laundry if willingly to take such services for such patrons being wisely advised to report to the Guild with addresses of such patrons according to the I resolution." The idea of this seems to be that customers will be forced to pay the increased charges unless blacklegs come forward and offer their services at the old rate. The question then is: how will the blacklegs be dealt with? Will the Guild resort to intimidation against the blackleg workers and place pickets around the foreign houses being served by them or will they adopt the line of passive resistance?

Another stickler of the Guilds is contained in resolution 10 wherein they state that "If the laundry master will take the new patron's washing clothes he is advised better to send this report first to the Guild than before to have the new business. It is in defence of owing account to the former laundry." This being interpreted means that if a customer is on the blacklist such as for instance holding back a portion of the washerman's wages in return for the loss of some valuable linen he can consider himself fortunate if the Guild, in its mercy, deem him a fit and proper person to be allowed a new washerman.

In the case of the customer who receives some small boy's undervest in exchange for his best silk shirt or, as only too frequently happens, an article or two, usually of some value, is not returned and the washerman insists that his customer is laboring under a delusion—what is the line of action then? As a rule the victim holds back a part of the washerman's wages but under the Guild's iron rule woe to he who attempts to do this—there will be no more washing for that customer when the Guild sends his name to its members and advises them that so and so did not pay washerman No. 3 his legal wage.

It has been suggested that the cure for too much interference on the Guild's part would be to do the washing at home and certainly the suggestion has much to recommend it. There would naturally be a certain amount of annoyance especially if the drying had to be done in the room of an average boarding house. On the other hand one could be reasonably certain of getting the clothes done within a week or so and there would not be that extremely irritating feeling that comes to one when dress shirts and collars which were to have been returned on Friday, in time for the theater performance arrive back on the following Monday. As everyone who has had to put up with the failings of the local washerman knows, this is one of their favorite tricks and does get rather tiresome.

As a check (unless the Council prevents the workings of this Guild in the Settlement) there could be formed a Citizens Union whose duty it will be to take particular note of that type of washerman who endeavors to borrow at least one article of clothing for every lot sent to him; also on the individual who returns the washing when he feels like it as well as upon offenders in general. Perhaps the Civic League would not be above doing this. We might even borrow some land from the Council for a drying plot and run a Shanghai Co-operative Laundry with up-to-date machinery and according to the most recent information on this subjects, there is sure to be at least one experienced man in Shanghai who has superintended some modern plant either in Europe or America. This is a job for the Civic League and if the wives of the League members only think the idea a good one and will infect their husbands accordingly without doubt we shall hear more of the Shanghai Co-operative Laundry.

A subject like this deserves the attention of all those who have suffered at some time or other by the playful antics of the Knights of the Tub. There must be some remedy and whatever it is, it should be put into effect quickly or we will have the tailors, shroffs, boys, coolies and every species of Chinese employe within the Settlement getting up on their hind legs and playing the deuce if the Laundrymen's Guild is allowed to make plans unchallenged. Of course there is only good if the guilds formed act in a legitimate way and consider other people's opinions as well as their own. Properly run they can do a great deal of good for some supervision is certainly needed over many of the shopkeepers in the Settlement. Trusting that you will find space for even a portion of this long grumble, I remain,

Yours truly,
J. E. OLLERTON.

A correspondent sends me the following interesting article from a London Weekly which in view of the doings of the Australian cricketers in England should prove of interest to sportsmen.

(BY J. W. HEARNE, ENGLAND AND MIDDLESEX)

We who have been to Australia in quest of the honors of cricket have returned a little downcast, and I am afraid, so far as one can judge, that our failure has thrown the game at home under a shadow.

But we have not lost hope, for meeting Warwick Armstrong and his men at Lord's and the Oval is a very different thing from opposing them at Sydney and Melbourne in the sweltering heat of the Australian sun.

It is certain, however, that the side who have just landed are going to be mighty hard to beat. Just one thing may swing the fortune of the game in our favor. On a soft wicket, I think we shall hold a winning advantage, for the Australians have no man who can spin the ball in the same deadly way as, say, Woolley.

WHY WE FAILED IN AUSTRALIA

Even in this, however, one must not forget that Australian teams in the past have very quickly accommodated themselves to our climate and the playing conditions it sets up, and it is possible that the side may include some bowler who will be able to make the most of a rain-spoilt pitch. At any rate, it can be taken for granted that the visitors will make a lot of runs, and for fast wickets, at least, they are splendidly equipped in bowling.

It would serve no good purpose to try to find excuses for our failure in Australia, but one may say that we had little luck either on or off the field. Nearly half the side were in the hands of the doctor at one time or another, and, personally, I was not able to get into flannels after the first day of the second Test.

I am glad to say that I am now recovered, and I hope to be fit and strong for the season which has just begun.

Cricket in Australia, as I have said, is very different from the game at home. Some of the matches "down under" were played in heat so terrific that a bowler was "done" after sending down half a dozen overs. The light, too, is so brilliant out there that until you get used to the glare you can hardly see the edge of the ball as it comes along. This, as you will realise, is a great handicap when you have to stand up to a man bowling as fast as Gregory.

THE SCORE'S THE THING

When the tour started I was very doubtful about our bowling. I fully expected that we should experience no end of trouble in getting the home men out. At the same time, I believed that we were so strong in batting that we should top their scores. Thus, the keenest disappointment to me was that as batsmen we never did ourselves justice.

It is my opinion that our bowlers did as well as could be expected, taking everything into consideration, and the failure was almost entirely due to the fact that the batsmen did not get the necessary runs.

As I have said, our guests are a fine side, strong at every point, and it is in their favor that they are brimful of confidence that they will be able to win just as easily here as they did in their own country. If they manage to do this, they will exceed even my high estimate of their powers; but there is no question that they will set us an exceedingly big task.

Armstrong may be neither a Darling nor a Noble, but he is still a very shrewd captain, in whom the side will have great faith. He now weighs about eighteen stone, and is a giant of a man, but he has not lost his mobility at the wicket, and is able to play through a long innings, without showing any signs of physical distress. He is an heroic batsman in the sense that he is usually seen at his best when things are not going well for his side.

THEIR FASTEST BOWLER

He is also still very useful as a bowler, though he may not think it wise to use himself very much as such, but he will always be available in an emergency.

No man enjoyed a greater triumph during our tour than Collins, the vice-captain, and though the fieldsmen were very kind to him he played several superb innings. He has a splendid defense, and the Australians could not wish for anyone better to go in first.

He was a member of the Australian Imperial Forces team in this country two summers ago, and the experience he then gained of English conditions should stand him in good stead.

Gregory is the fast bowler of the side, and he, too, was with us two years ago. He was then conspicuous for his pace, and he is still very fast, but I believe that he has slowed down just a little in the meantime. Still, he is sure to get a lot of wickets, and, of course, be can also be very useful as a batsman. He is one of those players who bowl left hand, and bat right.

Macartney and Bardsley are, of course, familiar to English cricketers, and both are just as good as they ever were. The latter did not do very well in the recent Tests, but I shall be surprised if he lets our bowlers off lightly this summer.

You may perhaps remember that Bardsley has a record to his credit that has not been equalled during the long history of Test-match cricket. Against England at the Oval in 1909 he followed an innings of 136 by 130, and he is the only player who has scored two separate hundreds in one Test.

THE "BOSSY" MAN

Taylor, Pellew, and Oldfield were also members of the A.I.F. team in this country in 1919. The first named is a most attractive batsman of the dashing type. In this respect he is different from the other members of the party.

In Australia Taylor is expected to develop into a successor of Trumper, but at the present time, good as he is, I would not rank him as high as Australia's classic batsman. But he will be admired both at the crease and out in the long field stopping boundary hits.

Pellew has improved in a very marked way since he was last here. He has a nice style, and his batting is very correct. He, too, is a fine fieldsman.

Oldfield is a wicket-keeper, but whether he will be preferred to Carter remains to be decided. The latter, who has been here two or three times, maintains his form wonderfully well, and a player of his experience will not be lightly passed over.

Perhaps the most interesting member of the team is Mailey, the googlie, or, as they call this type of bowler in Australia, the "Bossy" man. He is right-handed, and, as his splendid record during our tour suggests, he is at times very hard to play. But like most experts of the "wrong 'un" he is apt to be erratic and expensive. At the same time, when he finds his length he is quite capable of winning a match. Whatever his fortune in the Tests, I expect he will get a bagful of wickets in matches against the counties.

DOUBLE QUALIFICATIONS

Andrews is making his first trip, and he is expected to justify his selection. A right-handed batsman, he is also a fine cover-point, and can bowl a puzzling leg break. Ryder and McDonald are other newcomers. The former is a sound bat as well as a fast medium bowler. McDonald is faster, and though lacking some of the arts of Gregory, he will do well.

Hendry, who owes his inclusion in the team owing to the withdrawal of Kelleway, is another right-handed, medium-paced bowler. He, too, can get runs, and, as perhaps you have noticed, practically every member of the team has a double qualification.

Thus, the Australian team is a side without a tail. This is one of the reasons why we are going to experience so much difficulty in winning in the present state of English cricket. But I do not take a pessimistic view of our prospect. At any rate, we are bound to do better at home than we did in Australia.

JADE COLLECTIONS.

The most extensive collection of Jades in existence is the Heber R. Bishop collection, the greater part of which is now on view in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York.

The object of this collection is universal and includes specimens of Jades from all countries and ages.

It is exceedingly rich in magnificent objects of Chinese art, of intrinsic value from an artistic point of view.

An exhaustive description of Jade is to be found in a sumptuous work, entitled "Investigations and Studies in Jade" (New York, 1906.)

It was prepared in illustration of the Heber R. Bishop collection, and is in two folio volumes, superbly illustrated, and was printed privately. After 100 copies had been struck off on American hand-made paper, the type was distributed and the material used for the illustrations was destroyed.

"Green Jade" is the name by which we designate a High Grade brand of Cigarettes made of specially selected Virginia leaf.

In asking for

"GREEN JADE" Cigarettes

You will be getting High Grade Cigarettes.

RUMORS EMPRESS OF JAPAN MAY BE SOLD

Rumors are current, says the Daily Colonist of Victoria, British Columbia, that the C.P.O.S. is selling the Empress of Japan, last of the line's original fleet on the Pacific Ocean, in connection with the acquisition of the former German liner the Prinz Frederick Wilhelm, which will be known as the Empress of China.

In her day the Japan and her sister vessels were the smartest ships on the Pacific, continues the paper, and their original appearance on the trans-Pacific route created a greater sensation than did the advent of the large Empresses of more recent years. It is said that last year the company considered putting the Empress of Japan on the Calcutta-Hongkong service as a feeder for the trans-Pacific liners.

The Montreal headquarters of the C.P.O.S. are now arranging for the manning of the new Empress of China. The first ship of that name was wrecked at Shirahama, 35 miles from Yokohama, 12 years ago.

The Empress of China, the new C.P.O.S. liner for the Pacific route, is due on the Pacific Coast some time in August, according to word received by Canadian Pacific Ocean Services officials. The vessel, formerly the Prinz Frederick Wilhelm, a German ship, is now outfitting at Liverpool, and when she arrives in Vancouver will take up the traffic work between British Columbia and Oriental ports.

Arrogance Besetting Sin, Says Lord Beaverbrook

(Following highly interesting and instructive articles on "Success," "Education" & "Money," Lord Beaverbrook, famous British publisher, writes of "Arrogance," defining it as the besetting sin of young men who have begun to prosper.)

What is arrogance? To begin with, it is the besetting sin of young men who have begun to prosper by their own exertions in the affairs of the world. It is not pride, which is a more or less just estimate of one's power and responsibilities. It is not vanity or conceit, which consists in pluming oneself exactly on the qualities one does not possess. Arrogance is in essence something of far tougher fiber than conceit. It is the sense of ability and power run riot; the feeling that the world is an oyster, and that in opening its rough edges there is no need to care a jot for the interests or susceptibilities of others.

A FALSE CONCEPTION

A young man who has surmounted his education, gone out into the world on his own account and made some progress in business is the ready prey of the bacillus of arrogance. He does not yet know enough of life to realise the price he will have to pay in the future for the brusqueness of his manner or the abruptness of his proceedings. He may even fancy that it is only necessary to be as rude as Napoleon to acquire all the gifts of the Emperor. This conception is altogether false, though it may be pardoned to youth in the first rush of success.

The unfortunate point is that in everyday life the older men will not in practise confer this pardon. They are annoyed by the presumption the newcomer displays, and they visit their wrath on him, not only at the time of the offense but for years afterward.

At the moment this attitude of criticism and hostility the masters of the field show to the aspirant may not be without its advantages if it teaches him that justice, moderation and courtesy are qualities which still possess merits even for the rising young man. If so, we may thank heaven even for our enemies.

COLD DOUCHE OF DOUBT

The usual prophecy for curbing arrogant youth on these occasions is the sure prediction that he will come a smash. As a matter of fact, it is extraordinarily rare for a man who has conquered the initial difficulties of success in money-making, if his work is honest, to come to disaster. None the less, if the young man hears these "ancestral voices prophesying war" and shivers a little in his bed at night, he will be none the worse for the cold douche of doubt and enmity.

Indeed, so long as youth keeps its head it will be the better for the successive hurdles which obstructive age, or even middle-age, puts in its path. A few stumbles will teach it care in approaching the next jump.

The only real cure for arrogance is a check—not an absolute failure, for complete disaster is as likely to breed the arrogance of despair as supreme triumph is to breed the arrogance of invincibility. A setback is the best cure for arrogance.

It would be a false assumption to suppose that temporary humiliations or mistakes can rid one definitely and finally of the vice I am describing. Arrogance seems too closely knit into the very fiber of early success. The first-hand experience of youth is not sufficient to effect the cure—and it may be that no years and no experience will purge the mind of this natural tendency. When Pitt publicly announced at twenty-three that he would never take anything less than Cabinet rank he was undoubtedly arrogant. He became Premier at twenty-four. But age and experience tempered his supreme haughtiness, leaving at the end a residue of pure self-confidence which enabled him to bear up against blow after blow in the effort to save the State.

AID TO CHARACTER

Arrogance, tempered by experience and defeat, may thus produce in the end the most effective type of character. But it seems a pity that youth should suffer so much in the aftermath, while it learns the necessary lessons. But will youth listen to the advice of middle-age?

For every man youth tramples on in the arrogance of his successful career a hundred enemies will spring up to dog with an implacable dislike the middle of his life. A fault of manner, a deal pressed too hard in equity, the abruptness by which the old gods are tumbled out to make room for the new—all these are treasured up against the successful newcomer. In the very heat of the strife men take no more reckon of these things than of a hand-to-hand battle. It is the after recollection on the part of the vanquished that heeds the sullen resentment rankling against the arrogance of the conqueror. Years afterward, when all these things seem to have passed away, and the very recollection of them is dim in the mind of the young man, he will suddenly be struck by an unlooked-for blow dealt from a strange or even a friendly quarter. He will stagger, as though hit from behind with a stone, and exclaim, "Why did this man hit me suddenly from the dark?" Then searching back in the chamber of his mind he will remember some long past act of arrogance—conceived of at the time merely as an exertion of legitimate power and ability—and he will realise that he is paying in maturity for the indiscretions of his youth.

He may be engaged in some scheme for the benefit of a people or a nation in which there is not the faintest trace of self-interest. He may even be anxious to keep the peace with all men in the pursuit of his aim. But he may be compelled to look with sorrow on the wreck of his idea and pay the default for the antagonisms of his youth. It is not, perhaps, in the nature of youth to be prudent. The game seems everything; the penalties either nil or remote. But if prudence ever was vital in the early years, it is in the avoidanace of those unnecessary antagonisms which arrogance bring in its train.

It might be supposed that middleage was preaching to youth on a sin it had outlived. That is not the case. Unfortunately, arrogance is not confined to any period of life. But in early age it is a tendency at once most easy to forgive and to cure. Carried into later years, with no perception of the fault, it becomes incurable. Worse than that, it usually turns its possessor into a mixture of bore and fool.

Wrapped up in the mantle of his own self-esteem, the sufferer fails to catch the drift of sentiment round him, or to put himself in touch with the opinion of others. His chair in any room is soon surrounded by vacant seats or by patient sufferers. The vice has, in fact, turned inward and corroded the mentality. Far better the enemies and the mistakes of youth than this final assault on the fortress of inner calm and happiness within the mind.

The arrogant man can neither be friends with others nor, what is worse still, be friends with himself. The intense concentration on self which the mental habit brings not only disturbs any rational judgment of the values of the outer world but poisons all sanity, calm, and happiness at the very source of being. It is hard to shed arrogance. It is more difficult to be humble. It is worth while to make the attempt.

TEXACO
TEXACO ROOFING
the Asphaltic Roofing

If interested in a practical roofing you should know more about the Texaco kind—it is a durable, economical, proof against every kind of weather and easy to apply.

Texaco Roofing is a composition of asphalt with an all-rag felt base. Use it on any kind of structure you may possess. There are four weights—a weight suited to every requirement from factory to residence.

Texaco Roofing resists the action of chemical fumes, gas and smoke as well as rain, fog, sleet and any other form of moisture. That's why it is so economical to use. Texaco Roofing is fire resisting and, due to a special tempering process, proof against weather change. It will not melt in hot weather nor will extremely low temperatures cause it to crack.

BACKGROUNDS IN DECORATION

Scientific experiments have shown that colours possess disturbing and soothing mental effects on both children and the aged. They have also shown how essential it is that the background of any room in which we spend a fair share of our time should be selected with discrimination both as to colour and design.

Dingy and uninteresting colours are very depressing; on the other hand, certain yellows for instance, create the effect of perpetual sunshine. You may also obtain an atmosphere of soothing restfulness, the joyous spirit of youth, or the dim and mellow tones of age, by a subtle choice of ground colour.

Our stock of wallpapers represent the work of the best designers and colourists in England, America and France. Our Decorating Experts will guide you in the selection of novel backgrounds of unconscious design, or of rich and glorious effects in colour.
